

YEAR 1911
July to Dec.

THIRTY-FOUR

SPLEND

Waterloo
Saturday

Patriotic, ed
and very enjoy
Waterloo Cou
Waterloo Par
minion Day.
The membe
and the Wo
are to be con
of the novel
event of this
on Dominion
day—was in
the part of th
novel departu
tion of the m
evidenced by
both ladies an

Who
The picnic
the shade of
breeze remo
caused by th
Bunting had
decorations,
Women's Cat
ture Union J
particular at
and as a resul
hundred gues
ed with those
picnics.
The gues s
McCulloch, t
words of "O
Neville, K. C
speaker of th
visitors deliv
five address
as her subje
pleasing mat
gathering. N
National Fo
and by comp
fairs an Chin
he showed t
sessed by th
After the d
posed of in th Culloch was
tyn. In par
da" spoke as
Let me fi
your kind in ception. I h
the citizens
more especia
and good fri
live here, but I have had of
I congratula
conscience!
such well-ke
and such be Throughout
thoughts and
ed to the
upon His Gr
V. and Queen
We have g
we have rea
have thrilled
vellous gifts,
the naval ai
have taken a
in it all be
greatness of
by our cou ourselves. I
his mother,
cleave unto
filial affectio
we are, tur
a deep deve
immediate
Canada. H
young beau
dainty green
in her hair, g
bosom, a bew
and butters
fragrant offe
in her gracio
and yet, wh
um dress o
ornaments o
ing sunnachi
grape and a
world,—wh