Church, Oak-street. The men turned out 5300 strong and presented a very creditable appearance in their new bounets with white hackles. Col. John I. Davidson was in command and all the officers were present. Rev. J. M. Cameron preached an eloquent sermon from Joshua xiii., 11: "Take good heed, therefore, unto yourselves that ye love the Lord your God."

The route from Upper Canada College was by King, Yonge, Queen, Jarvis, Gerrard and Parliament. The same line was re-traversed after the service.

Standlong after he has been laid in the grave has been laid in the grave has been laid in the grave. His Grace Archbishop Waish preached the sermon. He congratulated the Catholics of East Toronto for the perseverance and early out to them the great facilities that they would now have for attending Mass, and urged them to stand firm by the faith. Mass will be celebrated in the new church fact the service.

OFF FOR THEIR HOLIDAY.

Dur Citizen Soldiery Go Off Upon Their The old Drill Shed was thronged with white helmets and dark and red uniforms as Grenadiers and Riflemen swarmed about in and out of their several armories, making final preparations, adjusting packs and overcoats and all in anticipation of several days of Solid Enjoyment. The Queen's Own were the first to fall in, and he exhorted them to remember that they bore the Queen's uniform and conduct themselves accordingly. The thunder of riflebutts upon the floor testified to the men's approvation this. Continuing, the major reminded the men that they would not be allowed to cross the frontier in uniform, as they would be highle to arrest. The battalion was then marched out and on board the train, which marched out and the train, which marched out and on board the train, which was at the City Hall Station awaiting them. It mustered fully 500 rank and file.

Any members of the Queen's Own who wish to join their regiment to-day can get tickets at excursion rates on the train from Sergeant Cameron, who will be on the train.

A FLORIDA TRAIN HELD UP.

Desperate Encounter With Masked Rob bers-The Express Messenger Killed. Jacksonville, May 22.—North-Bound train number 14 on the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West Railway was held up Hammock station, five miles north of Hammock station, five miles north of four masked robbers, who, in a desperate the Southern Express Company, killed the express messenger, Saunders, and badly wounded Soliciting agent I. M.

The train was stopped by the waving of a white station lantern. Jumped up, one on each side of the engine, and compelled the engineer and fireman at the muzzles of revolvers to run the train down on to a trestle 200 yards distant. While this was being done two other robbers entered the express car, and in an encounter with them Saunders was killed Cox is badly wounded in the face.

Train hands came to the rescue, and all four robbers beat a retreat. No money was secured. Posses are in pursuit of the rob

CHAS. S. BOTSFORD 524 and 526 Queen-st. W.

For a few days we have kept pretty quiet about carpets; we have been waiting for S. Davis & Sons, and after some drill and all preparations being completed the battalion marched out of the east door in excellent style, cheered heartily by their brethren in scarlet and as heartily returning the cheer. Their route was up Jarvis-street and along Bloor to Yonge as far as North Torouto station, where they took the train for Owen Sound. They were in good strength, and expected to be joined by some twenty more at the station. The Grenadiers fell in next, and after the The Grenadiers fell in next, and after the roil call had been finished and preliminary preparations had been made, the battalion was briefly addressed by Major Harrison. He reminded them that they were going to a town opposite a large American city, large numbers of whose inhabitants would likely come over to see them, and he exhorted them to remember that they hore the Queen's uniform and conduct them and quite a few are using them

Such Is the Charge Against a Young Man of Fort Erie.

BUFFALO, May 22.—The abduction of his sister is the uncommon charge preferred against a Fort Erie young man named Jacob Heaslip, who was arrested last night. The circumstances of the case are odd and interesting. The stolen girl is 8 years old. Her name is Katie. There is a contest between her mother and her step-brother, Jacob, over the right to be her guardian. Her father died some time ago, leaving a life insurance of $10,000 to her. Both the mother and the stepson claimed her guardianship and, it is said, contested their claims in the Canadian courts, and now both contend they won the suits, so the dispute is still unsettled.

Recently Katie disappeared from Fort Erie, where the family has been living, and

Mr. Lockwood was born and brought up in Hastings County, where his kindly disposition and sterling qualities have made for him a large circle of warm

The incidents which are related by Mr. Lockwood are vouched for by numerous triends in Lindsay who are acquainted with all the facts.

MR. H. M. LOCKWOOD. Mr. Lockwood writes as follows: Mr. Lockwood writes as follows:
"I was terribly afflicted with boils, having no less than 53 in eight months, during that time I tried many remedies without relief, Dootors' medicine did not relieve, me, in fact I could not get rid of them at all until I began using B.B.B. It completely cured me, and I have not had a boil since taking the first bottle. I write this to induce those afflicted had a boil since taking the first bottle. I write this to induce those afflicted with boils to try B.B.B. and get cured, for I am confident that but for Burdock. Blood Bitters I would still have had those terrible boils, which shows plainly the complete blood cleansing properties of this medicine, because everything else that I tried failed.

"A friend of mine who also suffered from boils, took one bottle by my advice from boils, took one bottle by my advice and thanks to B.B.B. his boils all disappeared."

As a perfect blood purifier, cleanser and tonic, Burdock Blood Bitters excels all others. In addition to this it has all others. In addition to this it has properties not possessed by any other remedy; it regulates the bowels, thus curing constipation; it tones the liver and removes biliousness; it strengthens the stomach and cures dyspepsia. In a word it regulates, tones and strengthens every organ of the body in a natural and effective manner and thus restores perfect health.
