

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

The LIVING AGE has been published for more than forty years, and has met with continuous commendation and success.
A Weekly Magazine, it gives fifty two numbers of sixty-four pages each or more than Three and a quarter thousand double column octavo pages of reading matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its amount of matter, and with a combined freshness and completeness nowhere else attempted,

The best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Serial and Short Stories, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature, and from the pens of the

FOREMOST LIVING WRITERS.

The ablest and most cultivated intellects, in every department of Literature, Science, Politics and Art find expression in the periodical literature of Europe, and especially in Great Britain.

The Living Age forming four large volumes a year, furnishes from the great inaccessible mass of this literature, the only compilation that, while within the reach of all is satisfactory in the COMPLETENESS with which it embraces whatever is of immediate interest, or of solid, permanent value.

It is there for indispensable to everyone who wishes to keep pace with the events or intellectual progress of the times, or to cultivate in himself or his family general intelligence and literary taste.

OPINIONS.

Nearly the whole world of authors and writers appear in the LIVING AGE in their best moods. Art, science and literature find fresh and eloquent expression in its pages from the pens of the best writers of the day, and the reader is kept well abreast of the current thought of the age.---Boston Journal.

It has now for many years held the first place of all our serial publications. The only possible objection that could be urged to it is the immense amount of reading it gives. There is nothing noteworthy in science, art, literature, biography, philosophy, or religion, that cannot be found in it. Its readers are supplied with the best literature of the day.---The Churchman New York.

It may be truthfully and cordially said that it never offers a dry or valueless page.---N York Tribune.

Biography, fiction, science, criticism, history, poetry, travels, whatever men are interested in, are found here. It furnishes more for the money it costs than any other periodical within our knowledge.---The Watchman Boston.

There is nothing like it.---Christian at Work, N. Y.

It has for us an interest and value beyond those of any other publication. Coming once a week, it gives, while yet fresh, the productions of the foremost writers of the day.---Montreal Gazette.

Through its pages alone, it is possible to be as well-informed in current literature as by the perusal of a long list of monthlies.---Philadelphia Inquirer.

It enables the reader to keep pace with the best thought and literary work of our time.---Christian Union, New York.

Formost of the eclectic periodicals.---N. Y. World.

It furnishes a compilation of indispensable literature.---Chicago Evening Post.

It saves not only time, but money.---

It has become indispensable.---New York Observer.

It still keeps to the front, as the best of magazines. If limited to but one publication, we would infinitely prefer the LIVING AGE to all others. It stands alone in its excellence.---Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C.

It is one of the marvels of the age.---Spectator Hamilton, Canada.
