This is a welcome volume, for the late Bishon Ryan was as widely beloved as he was known and no other biographic toutal possibly be as well qualified for the task of describing his remarkable personality as the gifted pris at who for many years had daily intercourse with Lim. Father Crouln tells us that he does not pretend to other to the public a complet account of Bishop Ryan's life, not more than 'a pudicious condensation of the chief features of so remarkable a arreer with a burfo outhie of his talents and character." He has embellished the work with some sixty full page allustrations.

The Bishop was horn at Almoste.
