DEATH OF MRS. DENIS MURPHY.

Mirs. Denis Murphy, of Chicopee, Mass., who died last week, was a sister in Rev. James B. Dollara, of St. Mary's. Father Bollard attended the funeral, as the also has elder brother Father William Bollard, of St. Stephen's, N.B. The Register extends its scheere sympathy to both priests.

CATHEDRAL WAS IN DANGER.

Providentially the beautiful Catholic cathedral of the city was presented from five on Tuesdry jet. At all hours of the day there are visitors to the illessed Sacrament in the church, and at midday on Tuesdry the number was not less than asual, many being engaged in marking the visits of the jubile. At one o'clock smoke was seen rising close to the alter, and dinger was instantly detected. An alarm was given and the fire brigade appeared on the scene. The fire, which stadged in the basement under the alter, was supposed to have originated in one of the electric wires. As the classovery of the danger was instant, the flagge, were soon extinguished.

ST.WINCENTIDE PAUL SOCIETY

The cannual general meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Society was held do Sunday afternoon in St. John's chapel. His Grace, the Archbishop, aftended, with V.car-General McCana, Fathers Hand and Rohleder. The president, Mr. J. J. Murphy, gave an account of the operations of the society during the winter season just past and eathered into a statement of the relief afforded by the various conferences, comparing the winters of 1000-1 and 1699-00. The record of the past season showed that prompt and efficient response had been made by all the conferences to the calls upon them. The president also reviewed the membershift of the conferences, comparing the rolls with the average lattendance at the meetings of each. He feelingly alluded to the death tof two focusored members of the society, the late Mr. Joseph Bondidier, an old resplant of Toronto and one of the early members of St. Vincent de Paul, also Mr. Moore A. FORTY HOURS AT ST. PETER'S

The Forty Hours opened at St. Peter's the first Sunday after Easter. His Grace, Arolabashop O'Connor, was present and preached a very interesting and practical sermon, based on the words of that day's epistle;—"This is the victory that oversometh the world our faeth." In his introduction, His Grace proceeded to show that we must forceome the world by showing our faith, not merely in those doctrines which the world to a great extent accepts, but specially in those on necount of whose difficulty and spirituality the world is inclined to reject. Of this nature was the Catholic doctrine concerning the Blessed Eucharist. His Grace very clearly and duly explained the nature of this doctrine and the grounds on which it rests, and showed that whilst above reason it was not contracty to it.

In the evening Rev. Dr. Teefy preceded a beautiful sermon on the Biessed Eucharist as a living memoration. allessed Eucharist as a living memorial of our Tard, a memorial which was not an empty figure but contained our Lord himself in reality. He showed at length how necessary such a memorial was to blind the inconstant human heart to our Lord and keep men from forgetting him.

An event that mot with unanimous approval transpired previous to the banquet, when Mr. J. A. Sharpe, presentent of the society, presented to Rev. Father O'Sullivan the following address:— Rev. Father O Sullivan.—

Rev. and Dear Father,—It is with a glad hand and a throbbing heart that we stand before you this evening a glad hand and a throbbing heart that we stand before you this evening to bhow, in our sample way, our teverence, trespect, admiration and affection that we bear to the founder of that flourishing and godly son ty, the St. Peter's T.A.S. of Peterboungh. Somy were we, indeed, to part with you, yet not with c chance to express our borrow, and glad are we now to seize that chance and give some compensation for your many fatigues and labors, trials and tribulations, while you coupled the chaplain's chair, not so very long ago. We have missed you and your timely advice, it is true, but thankful are we to receive in your place that energetic and uniting worker, Rev. Dr. O'Brien.

Since you have gone your society has flourished wonderfully, as you are, no doubt, aware, but all houer to the man through whose energy, zeal and enthusiasm that society was founded. Wa are sure that, although you were

We are sure that, although you were away from us in person, you were not in spirit, and that the many prayers you have offered for its success have not been in vain. And we assure you that you have never been forgotten by us, and that this happy occasion might have occurred sooner had we only the chance. Stall we hope that your energies and labors in other parts of his Lordship's Diocese may be as faithful, as they were here, and that you may be long spared to organize and found many other as flourishing societies as your successful attempt in Peterborough.

And in sonclusion, Rev. Father, we ask you to accept this little token as a slight mark of our affection and esteem, und may it be to you an incentive to look back with pride and admiration on the grand Society you founded in Peterborough, and with the sublime and happy shought that you have saved more than one soul, and more than one fiveside from destruction by that demon, drink.
