ARNPRIOR.—The congregation of St. Andrew's Church, Arnprior, has been lately presented with a very beautiful organ, which cost over $400, by Messrs. John and Daniel McLaughlin. Upon the arrival of the organ there was a large meeting of the congregation to hear it tried, when the following resolution was moved by the pastor, (Rev. D. J. McLean, B.A.,) seconded by Abel H. Dowsell, Esq., and carried unanimously:—

“The members and adherents of St. Andrew's congregation, Arnprior, avail themselves of this opportunity to convey their hearty thanks to Messrs. John and Daniel McLaughlin for the elegant and valuable organ which they have presented to the Church.”

After listening to a number of fine pieces the assembly dispersed highly delighted. Too much praise cannot be given to the donors for the generous gift which they have made to the Church. Such expressions of interest, when prompted by a sincere desire to improve the singing, and to promote the welfare of the congregation, are highly commendable. This congregation has increased so much of late that the managers contemplate adding to the Church accommodation by erecting a gallery. Under the able ministrations of Mr. McLean, we have no doubt the Kirk in Arnprior will flourish more and more.

MARKHAM.—A very pleasant pic-nic took place lately at Markham, in connection with the Sabbath School of St. Andrew's Church. A large number was present, various games and amusements had been provided, and the Markham band added to the day's enjoyment. About five hundred partook of tea, about four o'clock in the afternoon; all the good things then consumed having been provided by the ladies of the congregation. After tea a more formal meeting was held, Mr. Baxter in the chair, who, in the name of the congregation, presented Mr. Carmichael with a valuable driving horse, and an affectionate address, to which a suitable reply was made. Addresses by Mr. Hughes, Rev. Messrs. Ross and Carmichael, and music by the choir, accompanied by Mrs. Robinson on the melodeon, made up the very pleasant proceedings of the day, and the funds of the Sabbath School Library were besides greatly benefited.
