given for this state of affairs, which is so exceedingly opposite to the ideas always entertained as to his position, his offer of forty cents was not accepted, and it was decided to investigate matters more closely before extending any settlement. Another grocery concern in the same town is also in trouble. T. R. McQueen is unable to meet his engagements, and his affairs are being investigated by creditors. He nominally shows a surplus of $1,500 over liabilities of about $4,000, but seems indisposed to make an offer, and a demand in insolvency is about being made.

THE COTTÉ CASE.—In the Court of Queen's Bench, held on 19th, the verdict rendered in this case in the Court below was maintained as valid, and as a consequence, after a careful trial, and the exertions of the ablest legal skill in his defense, Mr. Cotté will doubtless have to suffer the penalty involved in his unfortunate transactions, in connection with his position as cashier of the Jacques Cartier Bank. Notwithstanding the sympathy felt towards Mr. Cotté in his present position, the necessity of visiting with condign punishment such breaches of trust is obvious, especially when, as in this case, many are induced to venture the savings of a lifetime in a Bank for the purpose of securing a provision for themselves or family, at some future day, in the hope that there, at any rate, security is to be found, and awake to find that all is irretrievably lost through dishonorable transactions. The lesson taught by this case, will, we hope, have a salutary effect, and serve as a beacon to warn others from the dangerous shoal known as tampering with sacred trusts.
