Government has determined to afford effectual assistance o Mr. Richardson, the African traveller, in prosecuting the one or the other to do with an assembly which had determined to stifle discussion and suppress truth. Mr. Hincks to his eternal disgrace also arose and forbid the audience to hear anything more from. Mr Vansittart. He did not say so in express words, but hestated his astonish-ment that Mr. V. would persist in striving to obtain a hearing after the meeting had expressed so much dis-approbation, and although he had thought otherwise at first he was now convinced that the people could not pa-tiently listen to the discussion of so irritable a question. This had the desired effect, and Mr. V. was forced to sit down. Before doing so, however, he said "gentlemen, I bow to the wish of your leader, and I am not at all surprised that he should strive to prevent the discussion of this question. He is afraid that I would bring forward some very unpalatable truths." Mr. Charles DeBlaquierre, and Mr. G. Alexander both tried to obtain a hearing in succession, but without effect The latter repeatedly asked for but three minutes to put two questions to Mr. Hincks, but even that brief space would not be allowed him. Mr. Beaty then addressed the meeting, he made a tolerable fair canting stamp speech, but entirely void of either ar-gument or interest. He was followed by Mr. Joseph gentleman completely eclipsed Mr. Beaty in his denuncia-tions of Toryism, and his praises of the present Ministry. He declared that all the Tories who had ever been in office had embezzled the public funds, and wound up by tions of Toryism, and his praises of the present Ministry. He declared that all the Tories who had ever been in office had embezzled the public funds, and wound up by requesting the people to exercise patience, and not demand too much from the Ministry. When Mr. Lesslie had con-cluded wa left the Court Honge heartily diggueted with of their representative. Mr. Hincks was heard patiently throughout the whole course of his rambling address, and when he had concluded, J G. Vansittart, Esquire, re-quested leave to reply, which was granted by the Chair-man. B. Vannorman, Esq. This was like gall and worm-swood to the Hon. Inspector-General and his oat-and out supporters. The former winced visibly under the lash, and the latter very soon evinced a determination to stiffe f discussion, suppress the truth, and prevent Mr. Vanstittart from continuing his address. Mr. V. arrived late, and not having heard the whole of Mr. Hincks' address, he was unable to take up and discuss seriatim, the different sub-jects introduced by his opponent. This brought him almost immediately to the vexing question of the last Ox-ford election, and although Mr. Hincks had dwelf for a considerable time on that subject, and had been patiently heard, his friends had the unmanly meanness to use all their endeavous to prevent Mr, Vanstitart from saying a word in reply. Mr. Kelly, the owner of the property, holds insurance in the Gore, Mutual, and Columbus Co., for £2000, so that his loss is fully covered. -Journal & Express. SCANDALOUS .- On Wednesday night last some miscreants entered the graveyard of Christ's Church, and opened the grave of Mr. Geo. New, buried there on that day. They broke open the lid of the shell, and af-terwards bored three augur holes in the lid of the coffin. Finding the latter filled with water, they abandoned their undertaking, and threw back the earth into the grave .-From the disturbed appearance of the moulds suspicion were aroused, and the friends of the deceased, on exami nation, discovered what we have related. He denied it, he would answered—John Wilson had. He denied it, he would prove that the Conservatives had. He was the same as he had always been. (Laughter.) The Conservatives had advocated rioting and mischief, they were opposed to law and order. They had opposed the Governor because he had sanctioned the Rebellion Losses Bill, which he dared to call a loyal one. (Ironical cheers.) He did not sup-port the principles of that Bill, but the Governor's sanc-tion, because His Excellency had no other course to pur-sue. (Cheers and hisses.) The Conservatives had not denounced the insults offered to His Excellency in Mondenounced the insults offered to His Excellency in Mon-treal. Not one Conservative had raised his voice against that outrage. Meetings had been held all over the try, and one was held at St. Thomas, where Mr. Erma-tinger had declared that they identified themselves with the mob of Montreal. (Cries of "that's false, Mr. Erma-tinger did not do so.") He (Mr. Wilson) had not turned his coat—he was still a Conservative. If to support Con-stitutional Government and oppose Annexation was turning his coat, then the charge was correct. (Cries of " why did you resign?") He had resigned out of respect to the electors. You may laugh, but I tell you such is the case. He had resigned to support the Constitutional question. He was determined to support the Constitution of England.— The Governor General must be supported in the stand he has made. He had resigned because the Conservatives opposed Lord Elgin.

A bystander asked him, "What about the Clergy Reserves ?" He replied, that such as were now vested rights, he would not interfere with; but such as were not, he would wish to be appropriated to educational purposes. > HALSEY'S FOREST WINE AND PILLS. THIRTY LIVES SAVED!

No example on record furmishes a greater proof of the efficacy of any medicine in Cholera than the following fr etheacy of any mencine in Choice that the knowing from Capt. John Wilson, commander of the Steamboat Swifsture, while on her passage up the Mississippi river. Capt Wilson is well known by many in the Western Country as a highly respectable and burnane man.

Lewisville, July 1st 1849 DR. G. W HALSEY .-

Dear Sir,-The ravages of the Cholera in every part our country impels me as a duty I owe to humanity, to make known what your Forest Pills and Wine have done in this dreadful disorder on board of my vessel. On the 10th of Jane while on my way from new Orleans to Lewisville, as master of the Steamer Swifture, the Cholera broke out on bo with great severity. On the first appearance of it three per sons were attacked; being no physician present I gave them such medicines from my medicine chest as I thought best. Two out of the three, however, died. On the following day even more was taken, and great alarm prevailed among the passengers. I was then informed that a quantity of your medicines were on board the Steamer, belonging to one of the passengers, Mr. J. M. Prime of New Orleans. With a deter-mination to do all in my power to save the lives of my fellow beings. I lost no time in procuring of Mr. Prime two dozon Decays. I lost no time in procuring of Add. Frine two docan boxes of the Pills, and as many bottles of the Forest Wine. To each of those who had the disorder, I gave five of the Pills, and as soon as they began to operate well, two table spoonsful of the Wine, reposting the dose of Wine five or six times du-ring twenty-four hours. This, to the surprise and joy of all on board, proved effectual, and they all recovered. More new cases continued to occur daily, until the whole number reac ed to thirty-three. I followed up the same course, giving th Pills and Wine always in the first stages of the disease, at every case they proved completely successful. Out of the thirty three cases which occurred during the passage, but two were lost, and those two died before your medicinese wer known to be on board the boat. Thirty cases were treated wit your Pills and Forest Wine, and was the only medicine given them, all of whom recovered, and enjoyed good health during the remainder of the passage'

TO THE LADIES.

Nothing in the world is more absurd than the custom o using psints, chalks &c.. to improve the countenance. A such things instead of beautifying the complexion, display an affected gaudiness quite unbecoming and disgusting ; besides, the frequent use of cosmeticks destroy the fine texture of the skin, giving it a coarse, palid, uunatusal cast. True beauty and loveliness accompany the highest perfection of health which again invariably follows the PUREST STATE OF THE BLOOD. What artificial appendages equal that vivid expression of countenance which eminates from blooming health ? What pain's compare with the crimson colored blood casting its brilliant rosente hue through the transparent texts of the skin ? What charms are more captivating than the of nature, in her highest perfection ? Let Dr. Hasley's Fore Wine supply the place of all cosmeticks. The use of th excellent wine for a short time creates pure, rich blood white coursing through the veins, penetrates the minutest fibres of virge toward the surface of the skin, causing all unhealt pimples and blotches to disappear, imparting a vivid rosy of our to the skin, and brilliant expression of the eyes.

THIS IS NATURAL BEAUTY.

In coroboration of these facts, Dr. Halsey has many testimonials. The following is from a lady of the most respectab standing in society, sent to us by her own brother. residing i Rutgers Street.

NEW YORK, JULY 7TH, 1849. DR. G. W. HALSEY,-

As you have kindly requested me to state the result proceed ing from the use of your Forest Wine and Pills, in the case my sister, Mary T. Maxwell, I cheerfully comply, believing i no disparagement to give my signature in evidence of the excel lent qualities of your medicines, My sister, from her youth, had been in very delicate health complaining frequently of weakness of the chest, attended with a cough. About the age of eighteen she began to get much worse. For six months previous to commencing with you medicines she had not been able to go out of the house, countenance was greatly emmediated, yellow, and sickly. face and neck was covered with disagreeable pustules, eyes very much sunken, and her cough increasing. In fine she bore every appearance of soon becowing an unbappy victim to consumption. At this time I procured for her some of yo Forest Wine and Pills, which she commenced using according Forest Wine and Pills, which she commenced using according to the directions. She gradually improved as she followed up the use of them. Her first symptoms of recovery was an un-commonly good appetite, her face finally became smooth, and her checks rosy. Her cough left her altogether. She is now strong and vigorous, and presents the finest example of health I ever watnessed. JOHN S. MAXWELL. ever watnessed. THE INDIANS. - We mentioned in our last aat the government had at last agreed to come to terms with the Iodians who were so illegally sent down from the Sault Ste. Marie. Last Saturday they paid them ninety pounds for their expenses and compensation for their recent trip. Several parties, on learning that the Executive had refused to listen to their claims, and had left them "to their own resources," came forward most generously to subscribe for their assistance. We are athorized to state that it has been decided to return the mounts to the several individuals who so kindly contrited; and to add that, ill-treated as these Red men have ee, by those whose bounden duty it is to protect them m bjury or insult, they entertain the deepest feelings of gratunde towards those who so generously stepped for-ward to befriend them both in this way and by many ther personal acts of kindness. - Patriot.

We have learnt that a letter has been revived from a mercantile house in London, asserting positively that the British Cabinet has decided upon reostively a fixed duty of 5s. per bushel on all foreign wheat, for purposes of revenue. THE NOMINATION. In accordance with the proclamation issued by the sheriff, the nomination of a fit and proper person to re-present London in the Provincial Parliament, took place in front of the court-house on Wednesday last. Shortly after twelve o'clock the business commenced.

The writ of election was got through with, a division de-manded and given in favour of Mr. Wilson. L. Lawrason, Esq., proposed T. C. Dixon, Esq., and H. C. R. Be-cher, Esq., seconded the nomination. Mr. Lawrason was obliged to raise his voice to an unusual pitch, to keep down the Radical gurglings. He was laughed at for his trouble, but what cared he for that? He said the affair was a truly laughable one all through, and no one disputed his word; yet it was not only laughable but very childish in John Wilson to throw up his seat. Nobody asked him to resign. If he wanted to go back again there was no reason for asking the electors to send him, he might have kept his seat. But this would not suit him. He wanted to go in another colour, he had turned his coat and consequently wished to gain both Conservative and Radical influence. By some he had been called a Tory, by others a Radical, but the more sensible had given him the name of "loose fish." Mr. L. wished to know if the nomination of Mr. Wilson by Mr. Mathews and Dr. An-derson. a leading Radical in town did not look father VALUABLE DONATION.—We learn that Ca-leb Hopkins, Esq., has presented to the Library of the House of Assembly a full set, of the Journals and Appen-dices of the Upper Canada Lower House. There are thirty two volumes in the set and from the burning of the Parliamentary Libraries, they are exceedingly rare. A more valuate present could not have been made to the national Library, and Mr. Hopkins deserves thanks for his liberality. It another set happens to be lying away in some mysterious corner, unused and unvalued, the pos-sessor will have his pathotism sung "nine times a week in and Nance Tinnock's," by sending them to the care of Mr. Todd.—Globe. Brown's politico-religious sophistry, and Mr. Joseph Leslie's levelling infidelity, we know not ; but rumour says that it was cool in the extreme. On Thursday, about two o'clock, P. He declared at the ontset that he came there to give an account of his Par-liamentary conduct, and that he was ready to answer any questions that might be put to him. Expectation ran high but disappointment speedily followed. Instead of giving an account of his Stewardship, he attacked the British American League. He formed for himself a political man of straw, and spent an hour in picking the effigy to pieces. He declared at the backed out. It was now time for the real loose fish to shew himself.
