JAMES STEPHENS DESTITUTE AND DYING.

FOR AID. LONDON, March 19.—The wife of James Stephens has telegraphed E. Dwyer Gray that her husband is dying at Mons, Belgium, and that she is absolutely destitute. Mrs. Stephens appealed for aid and Gray at once responded. Gray has written a letter for publication declaring Stephens had no connection with the dynamiters, and that his expulsion from France was a cruel exercise of arbitrary power which Ireland will not soon forget. It is reported other prominent Irishmen have contributed to a fund for Stephens. for Stephens.

MRS. "DETECTIVE" DUDLEY.

THE WOMAN WHO SHOT ROSSA ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN FROM SCOTLAND VARD.

Boston, Mass., March 18,—Mrs. Lucille Dadley, says the Pilot, has been traced timough Ireland, where she was "on duty" last year as an English detective from Scotland Yard, don. She was in Dublin in company with " Tyler," at which time she acted as "Mrs. Tyler's" assistant or "maid." In Sligo, however, Tyler's" assistant or "mad," In Shgo, however, Mrs. Dudley acted alone, and registered at the hotel as "L. Dudley," On her box and port-manteau, however, it was noticed that her initials were printed "L. D."—so that "I hacille" and "Y scult" were not quite invented for New York. The Sligo Champion tollows her, step by step, and gives the dates and registers. We understand that O'Donnovan Rossa will not prosecute the woman; but it is well to establish the fact beyond one stion that she was establish the fact beyond question that she was employed by the English Government as a spy, if not as a murderer. The Slyre Champion, of February 7, says: "

"Most of the readers of the Championaire, doubtless, in remembrance of the facts connected with the visit of a female detective to the town of Sligo in July last: we at that time called attention to some of her proceedings while among us, extreme kidney disorder. She recovered temporarily, but a year ago was again prostrated. She was swollen to twice her natural size, had frequent headaches, nausea, and other disguised symptoms of the disorder. All her Louisville physicians agreed that she could not recover. Her case and treatment were telegraphed to a New York specialist. who said recovery was impossible. Last August we began to treat her ourselves, and now, wholly through the influence of Warner's SAFE Cure, she is apparently as well as ever." November, 1884, he says, the finance of Warner's SAFE Cure, she is apparently as well as ever. "November, 1884, he says, the finance of Warner's safe Cure, she is apparently as well as ever." November, 1884, he says, the finance of Warner's safe Cure, she is apparently in perfect health." and of a certain episode in the life of a local gen-tlemm connected with the Government. When lative to the shooting of O'Donovan Rossa, his would-be assassin is one Yseult Dudley, but the real name is Lucille Dudley. There is some thing remarkably coincidental in all this. We have had in July, in Sligo, a 'founde police ann,' as she was termed, whose luggage was marked 'L. D.'; she sought lodgings as Misa Dudley here, and in Ballina, we understand, that when stopping at a hotel in that town she can always a great as a local in that town she gave her name as Miss Dudley again.

This is said to be the first time any English paper has indulged in such plain talk. Mrs. A. M. Dauphin of 1939 Ridge Ave., Philadelphia, is well known to the ladies of HIS WIFE'S APPEAL TO E. DWYER GRAY | that city from the great good she has done by means of Lydia E. Pinknam's Vegetable Compound. She writes Mrs. Pinkham of a recent interesting case. "A young married lady came to me suffering with a severe case of Prolapsus and Ulceration. She commenced taking the Compound, and in two months was fully restored. In proof of this she soon found herself in an interesting condition. Influenced by foolish friends she attempted to evade the responsibilities of maternity. After ten or twelve days she came to me again, and she was indeed in a most alarming state and suffered terribly. I gave her a tablespoonful of the compound every hour for eight hours until she fell asleep, she awoke much re-lieved and evidently better. She continued taking the Compound, and in due season she became the mother of a fine healthy boy. But for the timely use of the medicine she believes her life would have been lost."

For Weak Women.

MRS LYDIA E. PINKHAM: "About the first of September, 1881, my wife was taken with urine hemorrhage. The best styptics the physician could prescribe did not check it and she not more and more enfeebled. She was troubled with Prolapsus Uteri, Leucorrhea, numbress of the limbs, sickness of the stomach and loss of appetite. I purchased a trial bottle of your Vegetable Compound, She said she could discover a salutary effect from the first dose. Now she is comparatively free from the Prolapses, Stomach's sickness, &c. The hemorrhage is much better and is less at the regular periods. Her appetite is restored, and her general health and strength are much improved. We feel that we have been resulterfully bear illed and our hearts are drawn out in gratitude for the same and in sympathy for other sufferers, for whose sakes
