Mercantile Summary.

MINNEAPOLIS is reported to ship annually, beyond her local consumption, 1,650,870 barrels of flour.

THE Hamilton manufacturing firm of Moore, Robinson & Co. has been dissolved by limitation, and Mr. Dennis Moore will continue the business under the style of D. Moore & Co.

BINGEMAN & WILDS, of the Berlin Glove Factory, have disposed of their stock to Messrs. Brown & Erb, who, says the News, have leased the premises, and will continue the business.

MR. OWEN MURPHY, of Quebec, has been appointed liquidator to the estate of the late Mr. M. G. Mountain, of that city. It is expected that the liabilities of the estate will be paid in full.

"JUST my luck," cusses a New Yorker. "Here I've been paying on an accident policy for five years and nary a broken leg have I had yet, and as to my life policy the company died instead of me."

THE two businesses heretofore carried on at Montreal by Messrs. C. H. Cordingley & Co., and Messrs. Smith, Burch & Co., as manufacturers of liqueurs, cordials, &c., have been amalgamated.

THE Norwich Council has decided to purchase a second-hand fire engine of Seaforth, the price being $500. It originally cost $1,200, and is not much the worse for wear. Seaforth has lately put in waterworks.

A MEETING of the creditors of Emile Verreau, a general dealer at Little Matane, Que., was held last week in Quebec, but nothing definite was done. Verreau is endeavouring to find security for a settlement at the rate of 75 cents on the dollar.

URGEL DESMARAIS, recently deceased at St. Liboire, Que., where he ran a saw mill and store, left his affairs in rather poor shape, and his widow has come forward with an offer of 20 cents on the dollar. Mr. Desmarais failed rather badly before in 1876.

L. LOEWENTHAL, the Montreal clothier against whom we noted several writs of capias as issued last week, but who successfully avoided the bailiffs, has now assigned to A. McKay. His liabilities foot up something over $4,000, with assets to half that amount.

VADENNAIS & Co., St. Cessaire, Que., a concern of recent origin engaged in the manufacture of cheap furniture, have failed and assigned. —E. B. D. Lafleur, of Bryson, Que., a general storekeeper has assigned to Biddell & Stevenson, Montreal, with liabilities of $5,200, assets estimated at $5,000. Lafleur came to Bryson about 1880 and had previously done business on Calumet Island, where he failed in 1876.
