Ontario's Lieutenant-Governor

Among the most popular King's Birthday honors, just announced, was the Knighthood conferred on the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. Sir William Mortimer Clark was born on Queen Victoria's birthday, 1836, and practiced law in Toronto for forty years. He is a senator of Toronto University and chairman of the Board of Management of Knox College, Toronto. His present appointment dates from April 21, 1903.
