

The JSG will meet as needed to adopt the confidence building working plan, resolve issues, and monitor the progress of the confidence building exercise. The Joint Committee will be kept informed of the agendas and conclusions of meetings as well as on the progress made during the transition period.