

ARTICLE 8

Security and National Interest Exemptions

If a Party determines that sharing Information under this Agreement would be inconsistent with its domestic law, or detrimental to its national sovereignty, national security, public policy, or other important national interest, the Party may decline to provide all or part of the Information, or offer to provide all or part of the Information subject to such terms and conditions as it may specify.

ARTICLE 9

Requests for Additional Data

If, based on access to Information provided under Article 3, a Party has reason to request additional data not covered by this Agreement and its non-legally binding implementing arrangements, such request should be governed by applicable laws, regulations, arrangements, or agreements.

ARTICLE 10

Review and Consultation

1. The Parties shall designate points of contact, and require them to consult regularly to promote the effective implementation and administration of this Agreement.
2. The Parties shall, through their points of contact, jointly review this Agreement. The first review shall take place not earlier than one year from the date of the entry into force of this Agreement, and as the Parties mutually decide thereafter.
3. A Party shall advise the other Party of changes to its laws, regulations, policies, technology, or systems that may affect the implementation or administration of this Agreement.
