No. 433—Mr. Coates

1. In what year was a superannuation plan introduced for employees of the Government of Canada, excluding RCMP and military and before being transferred to consolidated revenue how was this plan administered by the federal government and in what year was the pension fund transferred to consolidated revenue?

2. What have been the graduated rates of interest paid the fund by the federal government and what is the present rate of interest paid the fund by the government?

3. What were employee contributions to the pension fund for each year since the plan's introduction and what is the total amount of all employee payroll deductions for pension purposes since the plan's introduction?

4. Has the federal government at any time contributed to the fund as is the case in private industry?

5. What were pension payments from the fund for each of the years since the plan's introduction?

6. Has the federal government at any time invested any or all of the monies resting in the Civil Servant's pension fund?

7. How much money would the pension fund have earned if, from its inception, all contributions had been invested in Canada Savings Bonds?
