Mr. DANIEL. Are these submarine signals of any use except to those vessels supplied with telephone arrangements in the wheel house?

Mr. BRODEUR. No.

Mr. DANIEL. These submarine bells cannot be heard by vessels unless they have the telephone attachment?

Mr. BRODEUR. Precisely.

Mr. DANIEL. And they have to pay a royalty for the use of that attachment?

Mr. BRODEUR. Yes.

Mr. DANIEL. Are all the government steamers provided with this telephone apparatus?

Mr. BRODEUR. The most important ones are.

Mr. DANIEL. Are many vessels of the ordinary merchant marine equipped with it?

Mr. BRODEUR. Yes, for instance, the Allan and the Canadian Pacific Railway lines. The stations are at Negro Point, Anticosti lightship, Red Island lightship, South Sea Shore lightship.

Mr. WILSON (Lennox). How many lighthouses are there in Newfoundland, what did it cost to erect them, and what is the cost of their upkeep?

Mr. BRODEUR. There are lighthouses at Belleisle island, Cape Race, Cape Ray, Cape Anguille, Cape Norman, Cape Bauld,
