Mr. Speaker: I declare the amendment lost.

● (1620)

Mr. Johnston: I have a number of other amendments, Mr. Speaker, that are to come before the House. I would be prepared to accept the vote on the first amendment as applied to the other amendments on the assumption that all Members have read those proposed amendments and realize what they are voting against. If the House gives unanimous consent to that, I would be prepared to dispose with votes on the other amendments.

Mr. Robinson: Mr. Speaker, I wish to have my vote recorded in favour of the amendment proposed with respect to clause 7 of the Accord.

Mr. Speaker: The House has heard the suggestion of the Hon. Member for Saint-Henri—Westmount (Mr. Johnston), and it is agreed, subject to the vote of the Hon. Member for Burnaby (Mr. Robinson).

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.
