

XLIII.

§ 248. That when any Bill shall be brought down to this House from the honorable the Legislative Council, or when any Bill sent up from this House to the Legislative Council shall be returned with amendments, such Bill so brought down, or the amendments, shall undergo the same readings and formal consideration, and the same shall be committed, and be subject to the same order, form, and stages, as are observed upon Bills originating in this House.

XLIV.

§ 249. That every public Bill shall be introduced by a motion for leave, specifying the object of the Bill; or by a motion to appoint a Committee to prepare and bring it in; or by any order of the House, on the report of a Committee; and that every private Bill, after the present session, shall be founded on a petition; notice of the intention of the petitioners having been inserted in the Royal Gazette for the period of one month previous to the meeting of the Legislature.

XLV.

§ 250. That all Petitions to be introduced, shall be brought in immediately after the minutes are read, and that such Petitions shall be read by the Clerk, after the third reading of any Bills that may stand for that purpose on the order of the day.

XLVI.

§ 251. That all orders of the day, which, by reason of any adjournment, shall not have been
