

1,500 SEPARATE PICTURES AND PHOTOGRAPHS
REQUIRED.

I said to the Colonel, one day, when speaking of the nearly 1,500 separate pictures and photographs required to make up the groups in the book, "Colonel," said I, "most of the fine ones are my own work." (I meant the small ones.)

"And it should be a very heavy one!" said he.

"What should be heavy?" I asked in surprise.

"Why, the fine!" The Colonel is never happier than when saying such things. And as I love to give happiness I do not mind.

NOTE.

THE NEW GOVERNOR GENERAL.

Earl Grey, the new Governor General of Canada, arrived in Ottawa after the last "form" was off—too late to tell you that on every side is heard naught but praise for himself and his charming family. They have already won the hearts of all the people, irrespective of class or creed, and I am sure the coming years will but increase this kindly feeling that is already seen to exist, between the Governor and his people.
