

LIQUIDATION ON NEW YORK MARKET

Extensive Selling in Last Hour Wiped Out Earlier Gains. CLOSING IRREGULAR

U. S. Steel Again Took Its Place as the Leader.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Such activity as was witnessed by today's stock market was confined wholly to the expense of liquidation. Trading in the first half of the session was the lightest of any for several weeks, but this condition was reversed in the last hour when an extensive selling movement wiped out a good part of the early gains and left the market in a state of confusion.

QUIET HALF DAY ON LOCAL MARKET

Maple Leaf in Demand—Petroleum and Smelter Inactive.

Yesterday morning's market on the local exchange was exceptionally quiet. Mackay was earlier, being offered at 92 at the close. Maple Leaf advanced to 58, after selling down to 57. Brazilian was quiet and fractionally firmer. There was little trading in the petroleum and smelter shares, the two features of recent markets.
