

- ii. 238
 239; the all in the 223 exploration,
 263—267
 American ole Days," mouth, 225;
 35; of the mutineers
 0; on the
 i. 18
 Dolorme,
 29; claims
 rt and Diseeps in the model com-t, ii. 71; his loss of his
 "Orient," 74;
 battle of Co-
 o Gibraltar, 312
 y Gilbert, i.
 . 151
 152
 170
 5; Brooklyn
 6; climate,
 d Stewart's factories, 51
 graph cable,
 iii. 307; his Ojeda, 311;
 the Bounty,
 Nombre de Dios, attacked by Drake, i. 302
 Nordenskjöld, Professor: discovery of the north-east passage, iii. 150; his Swedish Arctic expeditions, 257; his six Arctic voyages, 274; accomplishment of the north-east passage,
ib.; the "Vega," ib.
 Nore, mutiny of the, i. 249, 251—256
 Norfolk: sketches of the sea coast, iv. 247—251
 Norman ships, i. 266, 268
 North American naval station, i. 193
 North Cape, iii. 169
 North-east passage: early voyages for discovering the, iii. 115—
 124, 129, 151; the passage made by Professor Nordenskjöld, 274; north-eastern voyages of the Dutch, 129
 "Northfleet," wreck of the, ii. 260, 263—267
 North polar regions, map, iii. 89
 North Pole: expeditions to approach it, iii. 87; projected passage over the Pole, 144, 151
 North Star, search for Franklin, iii. 213
 North-west passage, iii. 142, 143; reward offered by Government for its discovery, 151, 155; Sir John Ross's expedition, 163, 205; discovered by Sir John Franklin, 206; found by MacLure, 212
 Northumberland, Duke of: his interest in the Lifboat, ii.
 211; his prizes, 213
 Northumberland, Napoleon I. on board the, i. 213
 Norwegians, Arctic voyages of the Vikings, iii. 115, 116
 Norwegian ships, ancient, i. 90
 Norwegian ships, sanitary arrangements, ii. 120
 "Novara" (Austrian frigate), deep-sea soundings, i. 28
 Nova Zombia, Gerrit de Veer's Map, iii. 131; Barents at, 133, 137; Henry Hudson at, 146
 Oak-wood, iv. 200
 Ocean, the, its Living Wonders, iv. 111—158. (See Atlantic and Pacific.)
 Ocean, Lord Collingwood's ship, in a storm, i. 105
 Octopus, iv. 148
 Officer's life on board a man-of-war, i. 214
 Officers of East Indianmen, their privileges, ii. 14
 Ojeda, Alonso de, a follower of Columbus: voyages to America,
 iii. 301, 304; imprisoned by Ocampo, 306; his escape, 305, 306; another voyage, 309; fight with Indians, 310, 311;
 quarrel with Nicuesa, ib.; wounded by Indians, 312;
 his strange adventures and death, 312, 313, 314
 Old and young ice. (See Ice.)
 Ommamby, Capt., search for Franklin in the Assistance, iii. 207
 Onions in Bermuda, i. 190
 Opium-eating and smoking, iv. 38
 Orellana, Don Josef Pizarro attacked by him, ii. 48
 "Orient," steam-ship, iv. 3 Osborn, Admiral Sherard, on the loss of the Captain, i. 58; his advocacy of Polar Exploration, iii. 92; his biography of Franklin, 206; search for Franklin in the Pioneer, 207, 208, 210
 Ostrich farming in South Africa, i. 210
 Otaheite, the crew of the Bounty at, i. 236, 238
 Oummak Pass, Aleutian Islands, i. 171
 Owen, Professor R., F.R.S., on the Sea-serpent, iv. 187, 188 Oxenham, John, his connection with Drake, i. 303; his embarkation on the Pacific Ocean, 304; executed at Lima, 305
 Oysters, British, mentioned by Juvenal, i. 262; natural history and cultivation, iv. 130—138; dredging for oysters, 137. (See Pearl Oysters.)
 Pacific Ocean, its depth and other characteristics, i. 28; Map of Islands, 245; discovered by Balboa, 303; Drake's first view of it, 289, 302; seen by the pirate Morgan, iii. 47;
 storm in 1895, i. 139; "patent smoke-stack," ib.
 Pacific Ferry, The: San Francisco to Japan and China, iv. 31
 —40; to New Zealand and Australia, 45—55
 Pacific Naval Station, i. 156
 Pacific Railway: Life on the, iv. 19; scene in the Sierra Nevada mountains, 20; snow-shed, 29
 "Pacific" steamer lost, ii. 108
 Paddle-boats, History of, ii. 77, 78
 Padstow, Wreck at, iv. 221
 Palaeocopa, M.: his co-operation with M. de Lesseps in the Suez Canal, i. 111
 Palos: departure of Columbus on his first voyage, iii. 293
 Panama, i. 171; taken and burnt by the pirate Morgan, iii.
 47—49; Spanish ships taken by the pirate Sawkins, iii. 51—
 54; view of the town, 52
 Panama, Isthmus of, Drake at the, i. 304
 Pandora sent to find the mutineers of the Bounty, i. 244;
 the ship wrecked, 246
 "Pan Iora," Cruise of the, iii. 91—99
 Papin: propulsion of ships, ii. 80
 Paraguayan torpedo blowing up a Brazilian ironclad, ii. 154
 Paraholia, or mock suns, iii. 132
 Parker, Richard, ringleader of the mutiny of the Nore, i. 252—
 256; hung, 256
 Parker, Sir Peter: mutiny at Spithead, i. 250
 Parma, Prince of, in the Spanish Armada, i. 284, 286, 290
 Parr, Lieutenant, his arrival on board the Alert, iii. 113 Parry, Sir W. L.: Arctic expedition, iii. 163, 168, 170; boat and sledge expedition, 178; career after his Arctic voyages, 184; his death, 185
 Parsees, i. 118
 Pasley, Colonel: raising of the Royal George, i. 62
 Patagonia, Drake in, i. 308
 Payer, Lieutenant Julius, Arctic expedition of the "Germania" and "Hansa," iii. 259; his discovery of coal in the Arctic regions, 267; Austro-Hungarian Arctic expedition in the "Tegethoff," 271; two years on an ice-floe, ib.; sledge expedition, 272; discovery of Franz Josef Land, ib.; fall of sledge into a crevasse, 273
 Payenne's "Submarine Hydrostats," iv. 86
 Peace, Men of: naval life in peace times; the cruise of the Challenger, i. 28
 Pearls from America taken to Spain, iii. 303
 Pearl, Commodore Anson's ship, ii. 46, 50
 Pearl oysters: pearls, real and artificial, iv. 67, 68, 69; history and practice of the pearl fishery, 70
 Pearson, Captain, his ship taken by Paul Jones, iii. 77
 Peat-bogs, Falkland Islands, i. 177
 Pennaica: an Arctic diver, iii. 210; mode of preparing, 216
 Penguins and their eggs, i. 40, 41, 177; iii. 280
 Penny, Captain W.: search for Franklin in the "Lady Franklin," iii. 207, 210
 Pensioners, Greenwich, iv. 286
 Penzance, iv. 219
 Perez, Father, his support of the plans of Columbus, iii. 286
 Perils of the Sailor's Life, i. 54, 67
 Perim Island, in the Red Sea, i. 117
 Perrault, the Canadian voyageur, dividing his store with Richardson and his crew, iii. 192
 Peru, i. 172
 Peter the Great: at Amsterdam, ii. 33—38; portrait, 33; in England, 38—41; receiving a deputation, 36; Saye's Court, 39; rise of St. Petersburg, 41
 Petersen, Christian, with Captain Nares in the Alert; his illness and death, iii. 105; the "Fox" Arctic expedition, 216, 218, 220, 227, 236, 241, 252
 Petropaulovski, i. 131, 132; Avacha Bay, 131; scenery, 131, 134, 137; town attacked by the allied fleets, 132; double wedding, 135
 Pett, Phineas: his improvements in war ships, i. 232; the Prince Royal, ii. 22; Royal Sovereign, 29
 Phillip, Captain, his voyage to Botany Bay, i. 152
 Phipps, Captain, his Arctic voyage, iii. 154
 Phipps, William, a fortunate diver, iv. 50
 Phoenician fleets, i. 259
 Phoenician remains in Malta, i. 103
 Pholates, rock-borers, iv. 203
 Phosphorescence of the sea, iv. 96, 97
 Physalia, iv. 119, 120, 121
 Pierre le Grand, the pirate, iii. 7; Spanish admiral's ship taken by him, 8, 9, 42
 Pigeons: pigeon despatched by Sir John Ross, iii. 211
 "Pigeon English," in China, i. 126; "Chinook jargon," 167
 Pilchards: the pilchard fishery, iv. 173, 216
 Pillars of Hercules, i. 87
 Pim, Lieut., of the Resolute, his meeting with Captain MacLure, iii. 213
 Pindar, his reference to the sea, i. 2
 Pinto, Fernando Mendez, shipwrecked in Japan, i. 129
 Pionzo, Vincente Yanez, his voyage to America, iii. 303
 Pioneer, the search for Franklin, iii. 207, 210
 Pipe-fish, iv. 162, 164
 Pison, Capt., his discovery of the survivors of the Bounty, i.
 247, 248