

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE, ST. JOHN.

WILL SOON CLOSE

Will be Exhibited Every Evening this week; Doors open at 7, to commence at 7 1-2 o'clock. Also Wednesday and Saturday Afternoons, at 1-2 past 2, Exhibition at 3,

THE LARGEST PAINTING IN THE WORLD,
THE GIGANTIC MOVING PANORAMA
....OF THE....

MISSISSIPPI AND OHIO RIVERS!

Representing all the Chief Cities, Towns, Villages, Bluffs, Indian Mounds, Encampments, Cotton, Sugar, Tobacco and Hemp Plantations, Lagoons, Animals, &c. &c., and giving a most truthful delineation of River Life, Steamboat, Flat, Coal, Wood, and Cattle Boats, and presenting the diversified Scenery of TWELVE DIFFERENT STATES.

A distance of 2,300 Miles from Pittsburg, Pa. to New Orleans, La. This great Geographical work was exhibited in the City of Boston, for 20 consecutive Weeks, and unrolled 185 times, to over 90,000 admiring spectators. From the respectability of this entertainment, it is suggested that Ladies and Children can visit the exhibition unattended by Gentlemen.

☞ The Panorama will be explained whilst moving by Mr GEORGE W. CASSIDY. Appropriate Music will accompany the exhibition.

PART FIRST.

OHIO RIVER.

The City of Pittsburg and its Environs. The Wire Suspension Bridge. Western Theological Seminary, &c. &c. Beaver, City, Bar, &c. &c. Wheeling Island.

The Celebrated Indian Mounds, at Elizabethtown, Va. The City of Marietta, O. Blenerbassett's Island. Squatters' Plantation, Fulton, &c. &c.

CITY OF CINCINNATI.

The Great Observatory on Mount Adams. Water Works, &c. NORTH BEND, the former Residence of WM. HENRY HARRISON.

RUINS OF THE OLD LOG CABIN &c. &c.

Lawrenceburg, I. Big Bone Licks. Devil's Hoof, or Clift Mountain. Encampment of Shawnee Indians, &c. &c.

CITY OF MADISON. JEFFERSONVILLE.

Corn Island. Falls of the Ohio, New Albany.