COTTON GOSSIP.

Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following at the close:

The reactionary sentiment in evidence the latter part of last week was general to-day and profit-taking continued thruout the session, which encouraged short selling by the ring traders, but the outside demand showed no signs of slackening and offerings were absorbed without prices developing any decided tendency. Reports from the belt, while bullish as a whole, show a tendency to enlarge estimates of the yield as a result of the favorable conditions now existing, but the spot demand continues and futures are still below parity with southern markets. The action of the market to-day is taker to mean the completion of the movement and we advise sales on any spurts from this level, pending the elimination of the weak long interest which undoubtedly now exists.

Cobalt Stocks Marking Time Timisk. Sells Off On Good News

Mining Markets Very Active, But Prices Only Hold Their Own-Cheaper Issues in Good Demand.

World Office,
Monday Evening, Oct. 10.
The action of the Timiskaming directors in declaring a three per cent. dividend for the quarter had the usual effect of such factors in the stock market, the shares of the company responding to the good news with a decline. That such would be the case, had been fully anticipated, however, as the bullish operations in the stock during the past two months had discounted any such announcement. There was evidently little demand for Timiskaming on to-day's markets, and holders who wished to liquidate were forced to make concessions to dispose of their stock. The price sagged to 85½, and at the close of the session stood at half a point loss from the bottom figures.

As far as values went, the mining markets practically marked time to-day. Trading was again of heavy vol-ume, but there seemed to be a suffic-iency of stock on offer to satisfy the demand, and beyond holding firm, Cobalts showed no outstanding characteristics.

Most of the cheaper issues, which have been on the up-grade of late, were in good demand, and offerings of stock in good demand, and offerings of stock were well taken care of in every instance. Small price changes were registered in various instances, but in no case were these of any moment, with the exception of that in Timiskaming mentioned above.

Toward the close the market brightened up a little, and securities showed

Toward the close the market brightened up a little, and securities showed a disposition to sell higher, but this was not extended to any degree and closing prices remained around the current top values for the day.
A few small blocks of Right of Way stock were thrown overboard, the price dropping to 31½, but immediately railying again. This issue showed good resiliency at the close, quotations being over a point above the day's low figures.

To-day, owing to some fresh Bazaar orders, the price recovered 1-16 for for both "spot" and "forward." The stock in Bombay remains about the same, but the daily offtake is reduced to 50 bars. There is a slight reduction in the treasury balance of sliver in Calcutta from 34 crores to 33½ crores, which is quite usual at this time of the year. As an indication of the great recuperative power of india, it is interesting to note that the exexports of 1909-1910 (the highest on record) were Rs. 184.34 crores, as comparative power in 1909-1910. exports of 1803-1810 tille highest on fe-cord) were Rs. 184.34 crores, as compar-ed with only Rs. 149.86 crores in 1908-1909, an increase of 23 per cent. ties and Sees Magnificent Future for Cobalt's Mines.

A J. Barr, who has been in Cobalt visiting the mines, returned yesterday morning, and in an interview with The World, said: "From general appearances at the mines I visited, I believe Cobalt was never in better shape. They have all settled down to actual mining and the territory has been so well de-veloped that it is not so hard to get a true line on the condition of the proand there is every appearance of settling down for many years of activity.

"In one district the ore values have been proved to a depth of 500 feet, and a prominent engineer expressed the opinion that it would not be in the least surprising if the camp had a life of 25 or 30 years.

"It was impossible with the limited time at my disposal to visit all the mines, and I could only see those in which my clients were chiefly interested. I was particularly anxious to visit Peterson Lake, which is surrounded by the Savage, Provincial and Big Nipissing properties. When one surveys this immense territory, some 228 acres, and looks over the records of the vast shipments from these properties and the hundreds of exposed veins leading into the Peterson Lake property, he is really astounded at its immense possibilities.

"I talked with several able engineers, and they say that wonderful developments are age to recover at any time."

England Has Cause to Fear.

In all rising markets, natural setbacks are bound to occur. Days of profit-taking usually result in small declines. This was the case with some of the clobalts yesterday. What shows the strength of the market, however, is the immediate recovery after liquidation has run its course. The mining market is now in the healthiest condition we have seen it for over a year, and we strongly advise purchases of stocks when they are offered, and apparently weak. The stocks in which we look for the largest advances are BEAVER, LITTLE NIPISSING, PETERSON LAKE, RIGHT OF WAY, HARGRAVE, WETLAUFFER, and CITY OF COBALT. Bailey looks like a good speculation. Mrs. Perry said she first had financial transactions with the plaintiff in the spring of 1906.

"He was an old friend of mine," said Mrs. Perry, who declared her husband had not assaulted the doctor because of attentions paid to her, but because he did not pay the money he had pr.1-mised. Plaintiff had loaned her $2000. and when she wanted to go into the millinery business he had endorsed notes for $600. At Christmas he had given her $150 to buy a fur stole.
