CARS RUNNING.

New Bedford, Mass. July 28.—Cars were operated on all lines of the street railway system here to day and the companies against whom a strike of motormen and conductors has been in force since Monday, adhered pretty closely to the schedule. According to Superintendent Potter, who represents the three companies involved. 43 cars were in operation thrubout the day and evening. Under normal conditions not more than 50 cars are in service.

Both sides remain firm to-night in their expressed intentions of prolonging the conflict.
