We will not, under any consideration, sell furs at this reduced price on or after September first. Our August sale fixed a midsummer price for Furs, and our design in announcing this reduction was to interest trade during a month that is usually very dull.

STRUCK BY BIG GIRDER TWO MEN BADLY INJURED

Were Driving on Dundas Street When Swinging Derrick Strikes Them Unconscious,

TORONTO JUNCTION, Aug. 22.-A serious accident occurred to-night on Dundas-street, opposite the Keelev Institute, whereby two residents of the Junction were seriously hurt. A foot bridge is being constructed at this point, from Dundas-street across the railroad tracks, and as one of the iron girders for the bridge was being hoisted into position by the derrick, it swung around over the road and struck two men who were driving to-wards the Junction on one of Gunns', Limited, delivery wagons. The men were conversing as they rode along and did not notice the girder approaching, and the they were warned by a pedestrian, it was too late, and the men were struck with such force that the horses stopped. The injured men are Alexander Den, 178 Ontariostreet, Toronto Junction, driver of the wagon, and Robert Grey, 63 Cockburnavenue, Toronto Junction, a plasterer by trade, who was on his way home from work. The men were at-tended to by Dr. Matheson, who lives at 1279 Dundas-street, nearly opposite the scene of the accident. He found Den, who was unconscious, to be suffering from a contusion of the right thigh and nervous shock. Grey was bruised about the shoulder, and the biceps muscle was badly contused. biceps muscle was badly contused. He also received internal injuries. Dr. Matheson is not aware how serious Grey's condition is till he investigates the nature of the internal injur-

WESTON.

WESTON, Aug. 22 .- (Special.)-Few events in the history of the little Village of Weston have aroused more interest and enthusiasm than the proaching reunion of the pupils of Weston High School, which takes place here on Thursday, Aug. 29. Established 50 years the approaching semi-centennial will draw from all points of the American continent and beyond seas where ex-pupils have gone to seek for fame and fortune. The committee in charge have issued a neat little brochure, outlining in general the history of the school, together with a short program of the proceedings, which will take place. James R. Dennis, secretary of the Weston High School reunion, is anxious to learn the whereabouts of every one who has been at any time identified with the institution, in order that they may receive a formal invitation to attend. Failing this all ex-pupils are requested to consider the matter as a personal one, and attend whe-ther notified or not. The proceedings will begin at 1.20 on Thursday afternoon. G. M. Lyons
