Ald. Thomas Otheir, president of the trades and labor council, will welcome the delegates at the inaugural session. He will be followed by Mayor Booker, who, on behalf of the city, will extend greetings to the visitors. Sir William Hearst, premier of Ontario, and Senator Gideon Robertson, minister of labor, will also address the delegates. Ald. McIntosh, chairman of the civic reception committee, will also attend the opening.

There will be no parade or brass bands. There is too much work to be done for trimmings. This will afford the convention getting off to a flying start.

A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without glasses." Another who used it says: "I was bothered with eye strain caused by overwork, tired eyes which induced fierce headaches. I have worn glasses for several years both for distance and work, and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the typewriting on the machine before me. I can do both now and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will.

S. BRANT LIBERALS TO NAME CANDIDATE TODAY FOR RIDING

BRANTFORD, Sept. 19. - South Brant Liberals meet tomorrow to name candidate. In labor circles there is said to be a prospect of a union molder until a good frost has had a chance at it. There was a quantity of most excellent hubbard squash and a few fine pumpkins. Poultry is still being sold in large quantities, and butter and eggs making a stand, while the soldiers may also be heard from. James F. Shute and Secretary Hutcheson of the G. W V. A. are being urged to come out. In North Brant, it is said that Mr. Franklin Smoke will probably be the choice of the Conservatives in this riding. Mr. H. Nixon of St. George is already the U. F. O. candidate, and Mr. U. O. U. F. O. candidate, and Mr. U. O. Kendrick is the Liberal choice. Warden McCann is another possibility for the Conservatives, and will have a strong following at Paris when the convention is held. Conservatives here will hold a rally Saturday night, and it is expected that a call for a convention will then be issued.

May Be Tory Candidate.

walkout, but this feeling found new supporters elsewhere. Some encouragement was found in the easier tone of the money market, time funds being in freer supply, even though restricted to the shorter periods, but call loans stiffened beyond the average rate of the previous week.

Foreign exchange suffered further violent depreciation, bills on London approximating their recent exceeme discount, while French, Italian, German and Austrian remittances fell below all previous records. The exchange situation was not without bearing on the country's foreign trade, exports of cotton, for example, showing a furtner decrease, shipments of other commodities also being curtailed.
