PLAYS, PICTURES
AND MUSIC

"PEG O' MY HEART"

The extraordinary success of J.
Hartley Manners' brilliant Irish comedy, "Peg O' My Heart," with Marceline as Peg, which will be the offering at the Grand Opera House week of March 12, is accounted for by its wholesomeness, its humanity and its pure love story simply told.

FATHER IN POLITICS.

George McManus' famous cartoon comic series, "Bringing Up Father," is given a brand new dress this season. Every successful cartoon must show in 30 years has been under the Gus Hilt banner. "Bringing Up Father in Politics" is a timely title.
This attraction comes to the Grand Opera House next week and will be presented at a scale of popular prices.

LOEW'S.

A bill will be shown the coming week at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre. The headliner will be the col-orated comedy drama, "A Case for Sherlock." Lulu Conlay, the Creole beauty, will return with a new act, while the Six Serenas will offer a singing and instrumental novelty.
A versatile and entertaining chap is Jack Goldie. The "Wee Wee" Settles the latest songs and comedy.
Adonis is an athlete of unusual ability. June Caprice in "A Modern Cinderella" completes a fine bill.

GAYETY.

With every detail absolutely new, Jack Singer's Behman show comes to the Gayety Theatre next week. The present arrangement of performance embraces the appearance of Mariette, the remarkably clever impersonator of the modish up-to-date girl, and of Amata Pynes, the always delightful classical dancer. If whom have long been identified in an important way with this organization.

AT THE REGENT.

"The Withering Hour" is the screen version of the most popular dramatic production that has played on Broadway since August 1913. Thomas, its author, first wrote for the stage. The subject deals with the influence of a powerful mind over weaker ones, and shows the truth of thought-transference. "The Withering Hour" will be the big attraction at the Regent, week of March 12.

AT THE STRAND.

A photoplay of tremendous power and pathos is the great Bluebird production, "The Chalice of Sorrow," which, with Cleo Madison in the principal part, is the feature at the Strand Theatre for the latter half of this week. The story is one both tender and touching, and the action is quick and daring.

ORATORIO SOCIETY.

Lovers of oratoria will be pleased to know that Dr. Broome's Oratorio Society is to give Mendelssohn's "Elijah" at Massey Hall on April 12, with a chorus of close on 200 voices, and an orchestra made up of symphony players of 50 men. Popular prices will rule. Levantine songs will be engaged and net proceeds will be devoted to war charities.

PIERROT THE PRODIGAL.

None of the theatrical novelties which have come to the American stage from Europe has been so enthusiastically received as Pierrot the Prodigal, which comes to the Alexandra for one week commencing Monday, March 12.

THE BIRTH OF A NATION.

That the Birth of a Nation is just as popular today as it was when it was first shown here is being proved by the large number of people who are buying tickets for the return engagement of the picture, which will be given at the Alexandra next week. This magnificent picture is a source of never-failing delight to those who have seen the production on more than one occasion.
There is such a wealth of detail in the picture that it is utterly impossible to trap it all by just seeing the picture once.
