K—Large Gain J. CHIM a

The report of the building inspector, James Carleton, filed with the Commissioner of Safety, shows that during 1924 there were issued 36 permits for new work and 684 permits for repairs. The value of new buildings amounted to $1,183,265. Last year's total was $358,500.

Permits For 1924.

During the year says the report, permits were issued for the construction, additions and alterations of buildings within the city at an estimated cost of $1,183,265.

Thirteen of these were of brick or concrete as follows:
Public School $84,000
Hotel, Admiral Beatty 666,000
Infirmary 98,000
Repairs to Court House 68,959
City heating service (Pettin-gill Wharf) 2,100
Garage 1,700
Warehouse 3,000
Laundry 3,300
Office of Supply Co. 2,500
Knox Church 11,000
Hydro Office 7,686
Remodel Dwelling 700
Addition 8,500
$952,415

Permits were issued for 23 framed buildings, dwellings and tenements at an approximate cost of $180,850. Miscellaneous work showed:—Repairs, small additions, alterations, foundations: Repairs after fire, 18; alterations, 43; additions, 26; repairs, 430; garages, 33; sheds, 33; workshops, 2; woodhouses, 19; foundations, 38; barns, 9; shop, 1; outhouses, 7; ice-house, 1. Shingle roofs permits given upon order of Supreme Court to all dwellings built and occupied prior to the great fire of 1877, 26.

All in this category were old buildings with small alterations and additions, too small to make any change towards new construction.

The year has been satisfactory as to the amount of work done, through the erection of public buildings, Infirmary and Admiral Beatty Hotel. Mr. Carleton thanks all public officials who materially assisted this department.

THE GIRL AT HOME

C. G. I. T. Girls' Council Has Meeting in Main Street Church.

Home interests for girls and the responsibilities of girls in their homes formed the subject of the group discussion at the meeting of the Girls' Council held last night in the Main street Baptist church. There were about 35 present at the meeting and Miss Hazel Fisher, president, was in the chair. The main street group of C. G. I. T. served a dainty supper. The discussion was followed by a much enjoyed sing song with Miss Mildred Bustin as leader.

Miss Grace Marshall gave an admirable talk on "How to be good friends with our families." Miss Bustin sang most sympathetically "How Sweet Home." Miss Estelle Vaughan, librarian of the public library, gave the address of the evening relating the legend of St. Valentine and was in the chair.

Mrs. George Givan gave a reading and the lesson from the study book.

ASSIST MISSIONS.
The Women's Missionary Aid of the Ludlow street Baptist church at its meeting this week had a splendid offering given for missions. Mrs. J. E. Rupert, president, was in the chair.

Elevated Road Pays In a Queer Case

BOSTON, Feb. 7.—A queer case is reported in a civil session at the court-house. A man was suing the Elevated road. He said he was standing near a trolley pole improperly charged with electricity. A dog touched the pole, receiving a shock. He evidently figured the man kicked him when he wasn't looking for he attacked the plaintiff, seriously lacerating his trousers and legs. The Elevated will pay damages.

National, state and local taxes in the United States increased 198 per cent. from 1912 to 1923.
