Children of Actress Suing Heirs of Alfonso XII. for Annuity.

Madrid, March 23 .- The judges in the Elena Sanz affair were called yestertress by whom King Alfonso XII. had two natural sons. These children are now suing the heirs of Alfonso XII. for an annuity, which they claim was left to their mother by the King, and which was to revert, after her death, to them.

The queen deposed that a few days after the death of Alfonso XII. that Senor Salmeron came to Senor Abella, who was then master of the household, and told him that Elena Sanz had in her possession certain letters from the late King, the publication of which would cause a great scandal. She would give them up for $15,000, and in addition Salmer n claimed $1,000 for his services in the matter. Trusting to the integrity of Salmeron the queen paid ver these two sums, and was assured by him that all the letters in questi had been destroyed. The present suit of the Sanz heirs, however, is based en-tirely upon letters identical with those which the queen paid to have burned.
