PROGRESS, SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1893.

NEWS AND NOTABILIA. Miss Florrie Bryan, a young English-oman, has given up christianity for an liance with the Maharajah Patiala, India, o whom she was married according to Sikh tes after she had been received as a mem-ne of their community.

ber of that community. Objections having been made to the sending of leather-bound Bibles with gilt edges to the South Seas, as a needless luxury in the mission field, it is announced that the strong binding is necessary on account of the humidity of the climate, and that the gilt edges are not so much an orm-ment as "an armour-plating against the attacks of cockroaches and the white ant."

Messages of Help for the Week. Sunday.—Psalm 55, 14: "We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company." Monday.—22nd v.: "Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee." Tuesday.—Ephesians 4, 29: "Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth.

moutb." Wednesday.—Proverbs 18, 24: "A man that hath friends must show himself friendly; and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." Thurday.—Malachi 8, 16: "Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another; and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name." Friday.—17th v.: "And they shall be mine saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them."

them." Saturday.—Pealm 25, 7: "Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgress ions. According to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness sake, O Lord."

The Best Recipe For Rest

The Best Recipe For Rest. There is nothing which will give a sample religious tist in the overruling, wise and tender providence which has us in its keeping. It is in chafting against the conditions of our lives that we tire our-selves immeasurably. It is in being anxious about things we cannot help that we often do the most of our spending. A simple faith in God which practically and every moment, and not only theoreti-ally and on Sundays, rests on the know-ledge that be cares for us at least as much as we care for those who are the dearest to us will do much to give the tired nerves the feeling of the bird in its next. Do not spend what strength you have, like the clematis, in climbing on yourself, but lay hold on things that are eternal, and the a healing balm. Part yourself in the great workshing currents, and hen you can rest you on their strength.—Anna C. Brackett.
