ILLNESS OF THE DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT CASTS GLOOM OVER ENGLISH COURT SOCIETY

The illness of the Duchess of Connaught, necessitating another severe operation, has cast a gloom over the English court society. The Duchess, who is recovering from the effects of the operation, is being nursed at Clarence House, and the public sympathy for her recovery is intense. The Duchess's illness has also affected the social life of the court, as many of the usual gatherings have been postponed or cancelled.

One of the chief events of the week was the delightful concert given in the Opera House on Monday evening by the Third Regiment Canadian Artillery to a large and appreciative audience. The concert was well attended and the performers gave a most enjoyable performance. The proceeds of the concert were for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Friday was the birthday anniversary of the late Sir Leonard Tilley. Many beautiful wreaths and floral emblems were placed about his monument in King's Square. The Duchess of Connaught, who has been visiting in New York, returned home on Thursday. She is expected to remain in the city for some time.

Miss Mabel French of this city, now practicing law in Vancouver, won honors with her gray horse, Switzer, in the annual Horse Show in that city. Captain Ralph Markham riding in the saddle-horse class also won a ribbon. Miss H. I. Spangler and Miss Olive Stone left on Wednesday for a short visit to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bartlett, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., are guests at the Royal this week. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Estey and their daughter, Miss Grace Estey, have moved to 100 Mecklenburg street. Miss Lily Kimball left on Tuesday evening for Montreal, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. J. G. Dods.

The Daughters of the Empire Loyalist Chapter met on Monday afternoon at the residence of Miss Louise McMillan, many members attending. It was decided to celebrate the King's Birthday, June 3rd, at the L. M. Club, when no doubt a most enjoyable day will be spent by the members. Mrs. T. Lister Chesman of Kitikant was hostess at a very enjoyable afternoon tea in honor of her guests, Mrs. James Jardine, who wore a very becoming gown of grey satin veiled with grey nylon, corsage bouquet of violets, and Miss Nora Knight, of this city, who wore a most beautiful gown of white lace, bouquet of American Beauty roses. Among the many guests were Mrs. Henry Schofield, formerly Miss Hilda Peters, of St. John.

An engagement of much social interest has been announced, that of Mrs. A. I. and the late Judge Truman, to Mr. Douglas McLeod, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mullin and children are guests at the Dufferin. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porter have moved to 77 Dufferin street.

Mrs. Stewart Skinner was hostess on Thursday afternoon at a delightful bridge at the Golf Club in honor of Mrs. Percy Donville. Afternoon tea was served. The guests were Mrs. Malcolm MacKay, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. Percy W. Thomson, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. Eason, Mrs. Corfield, Miss Astenborough, Mrs. J. J. McCaskill is visiting her mother, Mrs. Cunliffe at Fort Kent. Mrs. Joseph McVey, of St. Stephen, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Smalley, Alexander street. Dr. McIntosh, of Edinburgh, will arrive in the city today, and will be the guest of His Honor Judge Forbes, at his residence Wellington Row, tomorrow (Sunday) being the 125th anniversary of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, he will preach at both services.

Mrs. T. William Barnes, of Hampton, is the guest of Mrs. Gordon Sancton, Orange street. Mrs. Arthur Slipp, of Fredericton, was a guest at the Royal this week. Mrs. Frank Rankine and Miss Emma Rankine left last week for Digby, where Miss Rankine will spend the summer at their residence, Queen street. Mr. Albert E. A most enjoyable social and dance was given last week in Vancouver by British Columbia. About three hundred former residents of New Brunswick and their friends were present. The St. John delegates of the Women's Council which have had such interesting meetings in Montreal this week, are expected home today. The ladies have been royally entertained during their stay in Montreal. Miss Vera Brien, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, of Centreville, N. B., has won one of the graduate scholarships given by Bryn Mawr College, New York, for expert work in history. This gives her a free course in the college for the coming year. Mrs. Brown was at one time a student at Netherwood, Rothesay, and was a great favorite among her classmates. At a meeting this week of the New Brunswick Tourist Association Mrs. Victor W. Barnes was appointed secretary. Mrs. Barnes is sister of Mrs. T. William Barnes of Hampton and has many friends in this city who congratulate her upon her appointment and wish her every success. Mr. C. A. Gray's many friends will be glad to hear that he is in the Ottawa branch of the Royal Bank of Canada. Since his removal from St. John Mr. Gray has been manager of the Royal Bank at Hamilton, Ont. Mrs. Fred Ryan, Miss Ryan, of Sackville, and the Misses O'Leary, of Richmond, who have been visiting in Naples, Italy, left on April 10th on their return trip for home. Gen. Superintendent William Downie of the Atlantic Division of the Canadian Pacific Railway and Mrs. Downie left on Thursday for Vancouver to spend about a month. They will then return to the East and will call to the old country, spending the summer in England and Scotland. They will then go south and spend the winter in the south of France, returning to St. John the following spring. During the absence of his duties here will be attended to by Assistant Superintendent H. C. Groat. Many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Downie a joyous and a safe return home. Rev. J. K. Hopkins, Rector of Trinity Church, Andover, announces the marriage of his daughter, Gwendolyn Louise, to Douglas H. Burns, manager of the Bank of Montreal, Perth.

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, May 8.—Among the summer homes re-opened at the weekend were those of Mr. S. S. Hall and Mr. Walter Harrison, of the latter of which Mrs. R. E. Puddington, who with her daughter, Miss Annie Puddington, spent the winter in Boston, returned to Rothesay last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Foss have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Blanchet and family, who are getting settled in their new home. In the death of Mrs. W. E. Scovell, which occurred on Saturday evening, Mrs. Scovell has left an aged and much loved resident who had a very large circle of friends. Mr. Samuel Scovell, a son of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived on Monday and with others accompanied the remains to Kingston on Tuesday, where service was held in the parish church of which her husband, Rev. William E. Scovell, was for many years rector. She was laid to rest in the family lot in the churchyard. Mrs. Scovell was ninety-two years of age. A large number of floral tributes attested to the affection and respect in which she was held. Mrs. Gilmour Brown, of Fredericton, and Mr. William Fairweather, of Amherst, grand-daughter and grandson of Mrs. Scovell, were here for the funeral. Mrs. Charles Gilles, of Fredericton, who had been a delegate to the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary in St. John, spent a few days in Rothesay with her cousin, the Misses Coffey. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. D. Tilley were here from St. John on Saturday and dined at the Kennedy house. They are re-opening their summer cottage here this week. Miss Alice Longley, of St. John, has been a guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McMackin. Friends of Mrs. Murray, who has spent the winter here with her niece, the Misses McKean, are regretting her departure for Nova Scotia, where she is to be a guest of her sister.

Mrs. Fred Foster gave a small and very pleasant lunch on Saturday, covers being laid for six. Those present were Mrs. John Lawrence, Mrs. Blak, Miss Zela Morton, Miss Annie Magee, of St. John, and Miss Purvis of St. Stephen. Senator Donville went to Ottawa on Thursday for a few days.
