WIFE OF YOUNG GOULD IS PRETTY NOVA SCOTIAN

George Gould, Jr., Drafted for Army, But Was Rejected and Will Not Have to Separate Himself from Blushing Bride.

Truro, N. S., Aug. 31.—George Gould, Jr., of New York City, on his way to the front, many millions of Uncle Sam's current coin of the realm, was married recently to a particularly handsome girl, a Miss Carter, from some New Jersey town.

The bride's parents are natives of Brookfield, Colchester county, N. S., and the bride was born in that flourishing Colchester hamlet.

The Goulds are honored in having such a pretty Bluenose lass connected with their family, and Mrs. George Gould, Jr., hereafter will have to put forth but little effort to keep the wolf, even in hard war times, from the door.

His "buddy" was drafted for the war, and he was commencing to figure on a "separation allowance," when the medical board turned him down.

Fredericton, Aug. 31.—After spending ten days in the woods during which she kept from starving by eating berries, and with almost no clothing on her, a demented woman belonging to Coal Branch, Queens county, was arrested near Minto and taken to her home. It appears almost incredible that a human being could endure the hardships which this woman must have gone through. During the time she was absent from her home the weather was cool and there were several heavy rain storms. When taken by a constable back to her people the woman showed signs of her terrible experience. A. Sherwood, superintendent of the Fredericton and Grand Lake Railway and New Brunswick coal and railway
