The Dominion Expert Talking With Farmers.

F. W. Hodson, the dominion live stock commissioner, accompanied by R. Robertson, superintendent of the Maritime Experimental Farm; E. B. Elderton, president, and W. W. Hubbard, secretary of the Maritime Stock Breeders' Association, after the meeting in the board of trade rooms here on the 10th inst. went to Charlton county and addressed a meeting at Jacksonville on Wednesday evening.

There was a good attendance. James Good, president and were present J. M. Harper, Hamilton, Emory, James Watts, C. R. Carman, W. H. DeVeber, E. M. Shaw, L. R. Harding, Miss R. S. McDonald, Mrs. Chipman Tilly, Mrs. B. B. Van, Mrs. H. Harper, Mrs. Puddington, John Harper, Herbert Harper, W. E. Puddington, Wm. Tare, Israel Kinney, Isaac Slipp, Thomas Estey, Joseph Estey, H. T. Schorff, Stanley Harper, Leifaron Emery, Mr. Emery, Miss Watts, Bradford Palmer, Charles McCormick, Burrell Shaw, Rev. James Crisp, Wilnot Johnson, Albert Simons, Harvey Best, Stanley Crisp, George Tilly, Herb. Seeley, Chipman Tilly, Albert Burt, Murray Burt, J. R. Murphy, Bernard McBride, Allan God and many others.

E. B. Elderton, president of the Maritime Stock Breeders' Association, was first called on. He warmly congratulated his audience on their splendid country. He was glad to be present as an officer of the breeders' association through the kindness and courtesy of the Hon. Mr. Lablache, commissioner of agriculture, to introduce to them the dominion live stock commissioner, Mr. F. W. Hodson. Mr. Hodson had been called to fill the larger field of the dominion and he thought it was a most fortunate thing for the maritime provinces that he was here to see the face of a man who had so ably proved his fitness for the position he held. He hoped before long, with the co-operation of the provincial government and the assistance of the people of Canada through the agency of Mr. Hodson, to see the breeders' association giving a grand work to the country. He hoped to see the hearty assistance of the people of Canada through the agency of Mr. Hodson, to see the breeders' association giving a grand work to the country.

Mr. Hodson, on rising to speak, received a warm reception. He was glad to see in travelling over the Dominion of Canada everywhere he went the people in that particular section thought they lived in the very best part of the country. This was a splendid feeling and should lead us to develop our own neighborhood and make it as good as we possibly could. It seems to him that with all these splendid features of New Brunswick her people had not developed all their resources. They had not yet realized their possibilities in the poorest natural parts of Ontario were today the wealthiest because of the development of the live stock industry. The county of Wellington, while of the east coast in old Ontario was now by long odds the wealthiest county.

Ontario had advanced as a live stock country through her organization. It had become live stock commissioner on account of the interest he had taken in this work and the great success which had attended this work of organization.

Nine years ago the Live Stock Association of Ontario had but 15 members with a revenue of $15. Last year these associations had an income of over $7,000 and an influence which secured for themselves favorable railroad rates and legislation that enabled the live stock trade to gain by leaps and bounds. Securing the abolition of the three months' quarantine restrictions, the present dominion government had conferred a great boon on the live stock trade. But this year through the efforts of live stock associations.

He strongly urged the value of live stock associations for the country and he strongly advocated a united effort of all people.

R. Robertson, on being introduced, said these meetings could not be under better auspices than that of the breeders' association. Our live stock men were our best citizens. There could be no better encouragement. New Brunswick agriculture without live stock and good live stock at that. Anything that would help our breeders of live stock was worth our best encouragement. He outlined the work that was being done on the Maritime Experimental Farm and extended a hearty invitation to the people of Charlton county to visit the farm. He told of the work that was being done with milk cows and beef steers. In feeding dairy cows they had found some cows would give a profit over all cost of feed and other expense of $30 per year. While other equally well bred and carefully selected cows would net a small loss. In feeding steers the past winter he had been able with 30 steers bought at an average price of $45 each to sell them at $82.50 each, paying $300 for the feed and $100 for the labor and leaving a net profit of $100 and a large pile of good manure for the farm.

W. W. Hubbard spoke of the aims of the Maritime Breeders' Association and urged those present to identify themselves with it. He then spoke of the work the St. John Exhibition Association was trying to do for live stock improvement. Charlton county had in the past year many fine exhibits, but he hoped that this year this garden county would do better. The C. P. R. would carry exhibits and they had moved forward to escape this conflict and to try to get warmer weather and so help the exhibitors and visitors.

E. M. Shaw said the exhibition was held at such an early date that it was very difficult for farmers to leave their harvest fields to attend it.

In reply, W. W. Hubbard stated that when the exhibition was held late in September the weather was apt to be cold and wet and the date had conflicted with the Halifax show and they had moved forward to escape this conflict and to try to get warmer weather and so help the exhibitors and visitors.

Dominion Parliament.

Ottawa, July 13.—(Special)—In the house of commons Sir Wilfrid Laurier in reply to a question put by Mr. Foster, said that the dominion government could not say at what time the royal commission appointed to look into the matter of fraud would proceed. That was the control which was entirely within the control of the commission. The government intended to appoint solicitors to assist the commission.

Mr. Foster asked the premier if the report in the press that Justice Burton was to be appointed an arbitrator in regard to certain claims of the Eastern Extension and the Western Extension of Nova Scotia, against the government was correct. He also wanted to know if a bill had been issued to the Regina and Long Lake Railway for certain claims that each had against the government. They all knew, said Mr. Foster, what his rights meant.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier held that the remarks of Mr. Foster were an attack on the Exchequer Court. He regretted that a measure of that kind would be passed upon any of the dominion courts. He admitted that a bill had been issued to the Long Lake and Regina Railway. The issue was a mere question of law. It was a matter for the courts.

Hon. Mr. Fielding replied that the claims to which Mr. Foster referred in Nova Scotia were not referred to any arbitrator. Solicitor General Fitzpatrick, on taking up the provincial judges' bill from the senate moved that the amendment to the bill in striking out the clause granting three additional judges to Quebec be not carried in. He said it was a violation of the British North America act to refuse these judges to the province.

Mr. Macdonald spoke strongly in favor of the bill. He said that the action of the senate was a violation of the system of Quebec as framed by Sir George E. Cartier in 1854 and the constitutional rights of the province was embodied in the British North America act.

Mr. Foster said the premier did not want this matter to be referred to the courts. He said that the campaign against the senate. Mr. Foster did not discuss the merits of the bill, but he said that the bill was a violation of the British North America act.

Proprietor of a Hotel in Vermont Lost His Life Through the Upsetting of a Sailboat.

Fairfield, Me., July 13.—By the upsetting of a boat in the Kennebec river this afternoon two young girls, Flora Fournier, aged 14, and Florida Lallippe, aged 19, were drowned. The party was near the Benton shore and Miss Burgess says the Fournier girl moved in such a manner as to upset the boat. Day went under the craft but succeeded in getting out and rescuing Miss Burgess. The Fournier girl did not appear at the point where the accident occurred. Day found it impossible to go to the aid of the Lallippe girl. Miss Lallippe was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lallippe of Gold street, Waterville. Day is a stranger here, but the Burgess woman and the Fournier girl live on Water street in this village. The bodies had not been recovered this evening.

Mr. Johnson, accompanied by Geo. W. Warner, went out on the lake for a sail and in an attempt to bring the craft about, a stiff breeze came up suddenly and upset the boat. Mr. Warner was rescued. Mr. Johnson was 27 years of age. He is survived by a widow and one child.

Chines: News from Washington.

Washington, July 13.—A short cablegram received at the state department from Consul General Goodnow of Shanghai announcing the signing of the final attack on the legations at Peking terribly depressed the officials here. All along they have suspected that the Chinese communication received by the Chinese government in Shanghai had been prepared by the way for the announcement of the extermination of the foreign ministers and their wives. The consul general's message, it is understood, is but a repetition of the latest press reports from Shanghai, but the state department has been obliged to place a high estimate upon Mr. Goodnow's advice. It appreciates the fact that he does not send every piece of unreliable gossip about the sensational news culture where he is stationed, but uses good judgment in sifting out the probable from the other kind of news. Moreover, his advice this time is of the greatest importance to the government, where in Shanghai is situated, and is hard to conceive of an adequate reason for the falsifying facts by that office in the direct communication to the state department. The Chinese minister has undertaken to get through a cipher cable message from Secretary Hay to the United States Minister at Peking and to have the answer brought back by Mr. Conger to have the message prepared by Secretary Hay and its contents as to the conditions under which he undertakes to go to Peking and the decision as to whether or not he should be permitted to pass the lines would involve the decision as to whether or not a state of war exists.

end of the war with Spain and the Japanese government, having made no objection so far, is scarcely likely either to make a protest itself, or to entertain one from any other nation under present conditions.

Japanese officials here expect that Marshal Nodzu will accompany the Japanese expedition about to sail for China. The rank of marshal probably will be superior to that of any other foreign commander, military or naval, in China. Under the Japanese system, the rank of marshal corresponds with that of field marshal in the French system. As a result of the Chinese-Japanese war, three marshals were created by Japan, namely, Yamagata, who made the remarkable march into China from the north; Oyama, who entered China further south, and seized Port Arthur and Genoa; and Nodzu, who had the honor of being the first Japanese officer to score an important triumph on Chinese soil. Yamagata is now prime minister and Oyama is chief of staff, leaving Nodzu as the available one of this distinguished trio of soldiers. He is beyond middle life, a stern disciplinarian and has the reputation of being an impetuous fighter. He is a strong believer in cavalry.

MEN CURED FREE.

A most successful remedy has been found for sexual weakness such as impotency, varicocele, stricken organs, nervous debility, lost manhood, night emissions, premature discharge and all other results of self-abuse or excess. It cures any case of difficulty; never fails to restore the organs to full, natural strength and vigor. The doctor who made this wonderful discovery wants to let every man know about it. He will therefore send the receipt giving the various ingredients to be used so that all men, at a trifling expense, can cure themselves. He sends the receipt free, and all the reader need do is to send his name and address to I. W. Knapp, M. D., 1790 Hull Bldg., Detroit, Mich., requesting the free receipt, as reported in this paper. It is a generous offer, and all men ought to be glad to have such an opportunity.
