The latter an extensive tour to Europe. The latter was expected home this week, and on Saturday last W. E. Jardine asked leave of absence to visit Antigonish until Tues-day. It appears that during his first long the young couple are now in Boston. From the time the couple left they would likely arrive there about the same hour at which Jardine's cousin would arrive on route home. It is believed they were quietly married while Jardine was in Antigonish during the first of the week, and that this exciting clearing out was planned then Jardine's parents arrived here from New Brunswick the day after the young couple left and were quite worried over

London, Sept. 22—The war office has received the following despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria Sept. 22:

Lord Kitchener's latest despatches, although they contain good news as well as bad, have done little to reassure the public concerning the state of affairs. The loss of Lieut. Col.
