The origin of the fire is unknown; but the loss is placed at about $2,500, with $1.000 insurance.

The little church was built about twenty years ago, and contained a historic bell, presented to the Catholics by the king of France, before the conquest of Canada by the English.

It also contained a missal of more than 200 years old. The interior was thorough-ly remodeled last summer, among the improvements being new stained glass win-

The captain expects in a short time to re-turn to New York to take command of a steamship. The steamer is destined for the Klondike service, and will ply between Seattle and Klondike ports. To the captain's many friends it may be of interest to learn that he holds large shares of stock in a mining claim on Baranoff Island, near Nome. Captain Forward, of Nova Scotia, and Geo. McKay, of Cape Britain, are largely in-terested in the claims. Last night a party of congenial spirits met at the home of Claude Ellis to wish him success in his new business. A pleasant time was spent in speech making and toasts. Mr. Ellis left this morning for Nova Scotia to engage in an agency business.
