

Save the Money You Waste and Make It Earn You More Money

How much of your wages do you fritter away each week on trifles?

If you reckon it up you will probably find that at least five per cent. disappears thus "like snow wreaths in thaw."

If your weekly wage is $15.00 you spend easily 75 cents of that on "mere nothings" before you know it.

But suppose you said to your employer: "Each week I want you to keep 75 cents out of my pay envelope and invest it for me in War Savings Stamps. As you buy each War Savings Stamp put it in my pay envelope, and go on doing that for a year."

You will never miss that 75 cents. But at the end of the year you will have over $36.00 invested in Savings Stamps. By then they will be worth considerably more than $36.00, and by 1924 they will be worth $45.00.

War Savings Stamps are guaranteed by the Dominion Government. They have the whole resources of Canada as their security, the same as Victory Loans. And they bear an unusually high rate of interest. You can cash them at any time, however, if you need to.

W. C. T. U. HELD 35TH ANNUAL

Annual Meeting of the W.C.T.U.—The 35th annual meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held in Y.W.C.A. parlors, when reports of superintendents and officers were given, and officers elected for the year.

There has been keen interest manifested in the work of the Union throughout the year. Fifteen meetings have been held. Several excellent speakers have been heard. Mrs. (Dr.) Noesker spoke on "Citizenship." Mrs. Durham spoke at a "Mothers' meeting" during January. Mrs. Hyslop, of Toronto, spoke at the February meeting and also at a joint meeting with Waterloo Union on Willard Memorial day. Mrs. C. B. Bigelow of Cornwall addressed a public meeting on May 4th.

All departments gave splendid reports. The departments taken by the local union are as follows: Evangelistic, Prison Work, Flower and Deceit Mission, Missions to Lumbermen, Medal contests, Mothers' Meetings, Scientific Temperance, Anti-Narcotic, Law-Enforcement, Citizenship, Press, Railroad work, Patriotic and Traveller's Aid.

The treasurer reported 105 members and 5 Dominion Life members. Cash receipts during year were $350.00.

Officers for the year 1919-1920 were as follows:

President, Mrs. C. S. Bockmer; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. J. Kaufman; 2nd Vice Pres., Miss M. Good; Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. B. Musmann; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Elmer Erb; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. A. Eby; Treasurer, Mrs. W. F. Pushelberg.

WOULD BE GENERAL ELECTION IF REORGANIZATION ON PARTY LINES.

OTTAWA, May 22.—When the prime minister comes back and more pressing things are disposed of a reorganization of the Cabinet is certain. The changes promise to be fairly extensive. Some of the Liberal-Unionist ministers are likely to retire, because they figure that, with the war over, and some Unionist members have a similar opinion, but the action of the Western Provincial governments that supported Union in going in for the reorganization of the Liberal party has an influence on some of the Unionist Liberal members, who talk of going to the convention and seeing what it does. They will determine their future attitude by the character of the platform.

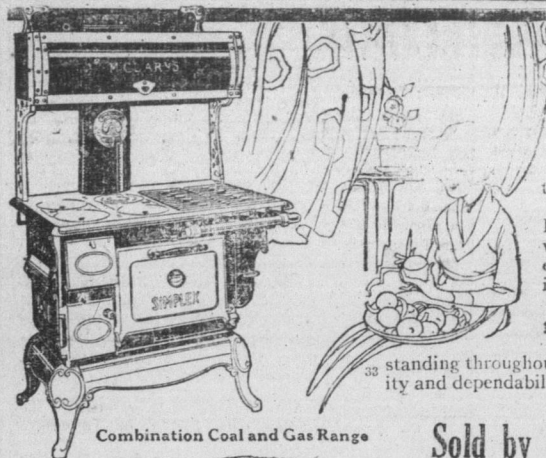

Meanwhile the budget speech is awaited with much concern, as upon the measure of concession to the West will depend considerable of the support now accorded the Union Government by Western Liberals. This same announcement will also be a big factor in determining the solidity of the Union party.

Much has been heard in the West, particularly of D. D. MacKenzie's alleged "break" when he declared himself a moderate protectionist. He knew what he was doing. The Liberals are still at holding Quebec en bloc, and then, on the issue of free trade, a baker's dozen would not be re-elected in that province, which is becoming more and more a manufacturing center.

FOUND IMPRACTICABLE
Germans Suggest Industrial Parliament under League of Nations

Paris May 22.—The German league of nations plan contain 65 clauses. It agrees in general with the conference document but proposes a number of amendments including compulsory arbitration and an industrial parliament, both of which have hitherto been pronounced impracticable by the league of nations committee. The allied reply has been drafted but not yet forwarded. It points out the general character of the German plan with the covenant and the impracticable character of the innovations.

NO "IN-LAW" FOR THIS BRIDE.

"I refused to be an in-law from the moment I entered Jack's family," said the pretty young bride of six months, there is something suggestive of criticism about the word in-law, there is something that hints of half confidences, and whisperings on the side. An in-law is someone who is accepted into the family on sufferance, someone who is expected to find fault, someone who is a legal object of adverse comment; I wouldn't be an in-law even for the sake of Jack, much as I love him.

"I made up my mind at first that Jack's mother was the dearest thing on earth, after my own parents, and Jack, I went to meet her in that spirit and how well I succeeded you may guess, when I tell you that a week after Jack and I were married, she gave me half of the lock of hair she took from Jack's head when he was a month old. She and I are the greatest pals in the world. I let her take an interest in everything I do, but she never meddles. Sometimes she tries to overrule me about such little things as having the curtains tied back, instead of hanging straight, as I like them; but then my own mother would do the same if she were here. My own mother had set ideas about how she likes things, and sometimes she tries to force them on others; but I don't attach any importance to that in my mother, so I refuse to attach any importance to it in Jack's mother. I never make 'company' of Jack's mother as some young wives do with their mothers-in-law; if I am dining some where she arrives unexpectedly, I give her a look to warn her; or if she wants to put in our kitchen and get the supper ready I let her do it. Sometimes she finds the
