*CEYLON AIRPORT—STATEMENT BY FORMER MINISTER WITHOUT PORTFOLIO

Question No. 2,714—Mr. Marcoux:

On the occasion of the inauguration of an airport in Ceylon, which airport was built under the provisions of the Colombo plan, did the former minister without portfolio announce that Canada would not insist on repayment by Ceylon and, if so, did this viewpoint reflect official government policy?

[Translation]

Mr. Stanley Haidasz (Parliamentary Secretary to Secretary of State for External Affairs): The former minister without portfolio explained, on the occasion of the inauguration of the Ceylon airport, that this project had been undertaken thanks to appropriations made available by the Canadian parliament which provided an assistance program to Ceylon in the form of grants and that, therefore, there would be no repayment
