

of Chancery
respectively, may, in their discretion, admit J. R.
Thompson to practise in the said Courts.

for the Court of Queen's Bench, in Upper Canada, in its discretion, to admit the said Joseph Richard Thompson to practise as an Attorney of that Court; and that it shall also be lawful for the Court of Chancery, in 5 Upper Canada aforesaid, in its discretion, to admit him to practise as a Solicitor in the said Court of Chancery, any Law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.