

Pedlar, lawfully issued under any Act repealed during the present Session, may continue to act under such License and according to the terms thereof until the day of _____ next, after this Act shall come into force, (but not afterwards) as if such person or party had been licensed for a like purpose under this Act.

Exceptions as to the sale of certain things, &c.

Manufacturers.

Tinkers, &c.

Hucksters.

Agricultural produce.

II. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any person not being licensed as aforesaid, from selling the Acts of the Legislature, Prayer-Books or Church Catechisms, Confessions of Faith, Proclamations, Gazettes, Almanacs, or other printed papers that shall be licensed by authority, or any fresh fish, fruit or victuals, live stock or agricultural produce, or any leather, hollow ware, or farming utensils, being the growth, produce, or manufacture of this Province,—nor to prevent any person, being a subject of Her Majesty and the real maker of any goods, wares or merchandize manufactured within this Province, or his children, apprentices, agents, or servants, from carrying abroad, exposing to sale or selling by retail or otherwise, any such goods, wares, or merchandize, of his own making as aforesaid,—nor to prevent any tinker, cooper, glazier, harness-mender, or other person usually trading in mending kettles, tubs, or other household goods, and being Her Majesty's subject, from going about and carrying proper materials for mending the same,—nor to prevent any huckster or person having a stall or stand in a market in any town in this Province, and being such subject as aforesaid, from selling or exposing to sale, any fish, fruits, or victuals, or any goods, wares or merchandize, in such stall or stand, provided he shall comply with the rules and regulations made or to be made by the proper authorities, concerning such market, stall or stand,—nor to prevent any person whomsoever from importing into this Province any wheat, flour, peas, beans, oats, barley, Indian corn or meal, rye, staves or heading, oak, pine or fir timber, or other lumber, pot or pearl ashes, furs or skins not dressed, beef,