

Chapel of the Sacred Heart.

This gorgeous monument of church architecture is situated in the rear of the great Notre Dame Church. The chapel is in the form of a Latin cross, and is 90 feet in length. The paintings are especially worthy of inspection, all of them the work of Canadian artists, who had studied in Paris under the most famous masters. The cost of the building is said to be about $300,000.