

TO OUR READERS

The Philosopher will continue to philosophize on current comment. Watch this page if you would be "up" on every live subject.

The Western Home Monthly, accepts no "fake" advertisements. Every one is genuine, and may be relied upon to represent the goods advertised.

"What the World is Saying" is a resume of the best thought, particularly Western. The editors of our Western papers say so many good things that we wish to give their articles a wider circulation.

Mr. Brown's article in this month's issue contains much that Ralph Connor has never published. The famous writer reveals to the interviewer much that the public has not known about his aims, and his views of Canada, etc.

We invite correspondence. Many are the difficulties which meet young men. Rev. J. L. Gordon will talk with you about them. He is experienced in all that pertains to the life of young men. Write him, care of Western Home Monthly.

Men who have achieved eminence in their respective callings will write for The Monthly under the caption of "The Making of the West." This feature will be continued for some time. It is of great interest to know what our leading men have to say about the West and its possibilities. We feel sure our readers will follow closely the series of articles.

The chef of the Marriaggi, Winnipeg, continues to give his excellent recipes in "Household Suggestions." From several sources we learn that our readers appreciate the department. There is no one better qualified to tickle the palate than the chef of Winnipeg's chief hotel. Every lady should cut these suggestions out for present or future use.

The publishers recognize the value to a home of a Women's Department. They are giving special attention to these columns. Everything will be done to make them attractive and interesting to the thousands of ladies who read The Western Home Monthly. Special attention is called to "What to Wear and When to Wear It." Up to date hints will be given of the latest styles in women's wear.

Everyone interested in the moral welfare of others should recommend The Western Home Monthly. It is educative and informing. If your friends were given a copy they would subscribe. There is not a cheaper five cents worth of literature on the market.

If you wish to give your friends in the old land glimpses of Western Canada, you could not find a better medium than The Western Home Monthly. It is full of illustrations of the varied life of our country. Besides, it is tastefully gotten up and your friends would prize the information it gives.

Men who are competent to judge are saying good things about The Western Home Monthly. They commend its comments, and are favorably impressed with its general make-up. We wish to state that the standard will not only be kept up, but improved. A resume of "What the World is Saying" will be continued, and the subjects treated will be those that people are thinking and talking about.

A Saddle Song.

I'll sing you a song of the saddle
An' a sinewy, swift little horse—
Oh! th' desert waste is a gruesome place
An' th' sharp sand stings as it hits
your face
An' th' whirlwinds block your course!

From here to th' far-off mountains
Th' road is long an' dry—
There's a grassy glare to th' hell-like air
That makes you dizzy and hurts for fair
An' th' buzzards reel through th' sky!

Th' little horse lopes with a steady gait
But he shakes his head an' snorts—
Th' sand an' the glare are blinding you
An' you wonder if ever he'll take you through

To th' water your fierce thirst courts!
You take a drink from your canteen
But th' water is flat an' hot—
Oh! the laughing, rippling, cool, cool,
clear stream
Where th' shadows float an' you sit
an' dream,
Can't you ever forget th' spot!

"Here's How!" to th' far-off desert!
"Here's Luck!" to th' swift little horse!
May his bones never bleach in th'
sun's fierce glare.
May he stay by what water there is
out there,
'Till his life has spent its force!

Headaches

When the Head aches and the Tongue is Coated

it is Biliousness or Constipation. Torpid Liver is at the bottom of the trouble. And it takes Fruit-a-tives to make that lazy liver work.

Fresh fruit is fine for these troubles, but one can't eat enough fruit to do much good. The medicinal elements are in too small proportion in the ripe fruits.

A clever Ottawa physician discovered a method by which fruit juices could be combined so that their medicinal action would be increased many times.

Fruit-a-tives are these fruit juices in tablet form. They sweeten and tone the stomach and liver, cure Constipation and remove all blood impurities. One Fruit-a-tives tablet has the same curative effect on liver and bowels as dozens of oranges, apples, figs and prunes. And this action is as gentle as the fruit juices themselves.

"I have been suffering with Torpid Liver and Constipation, and find that Fruit-a-tives are just what my system requires to relieve these complaints. I hope many more sufferers will try them."

The leather of your shoes has a life to live.

Starve or poison it and it rots, cracks, dries up and dies —gives you only half the wear you paid for.

Neglecting to polish your shoes is leather starvation. Turpentine or varnish polishes are leather poison.

Black "O" is a combination of liquid and paste polish in paste form. It doesn't contain an ingredient that will hurt leather, it contains much that will help it wear
well and last long.
