

you will, I know, be pleased to hear that mother has pleas'ed to be with Maddie and David in Worshampton during the Christmas season. We telephoned her three times evening and suggested she please to come here if at all possible, and we are to telephone her Sunday concerning any possible arrangements. We are hoping she will be able to you, which we have left untouched, and apply the total to the acquisition of such pieces of silver as may be necessary to round out and enlarge our beautiful wedding gift when they become available.

In this manner, each year's gift will become part of one of our most happy recollections with you at the time of our marriage.
