

- 2 -

Particularly fortunate to secure M. Greber's services at time when we must decide upon long-range policies re memorials and public buildings in Ottawa; Pleased that there has been a growing interest in, and concern for this, on part of people of Ottawa and of country as a whole - citizens of Dominion not resident of Ottawa have regarded beautification of Capital not from narrow, but from broad national point of view; Ottawa ideally situated as a Capital city;

Need of vision, tempered with patience and perseverance, to do justice to natural amenities and to create, for future generations a Capital unsurpassed throughout the world;

Such a Capital would be source of inspiration to the nation, and a symbol of the rich and varied beauties which Canada possesses;

Importance of new Building to the Capital:

With its location, size and architectural beauty, Bank of Canada building will have an important place in development of Capital;