

School. Though time has wafted us on, with the consequent changes, we have reason to be thankful for the many blessings that have been our portion. In accepting the heritage that has been handed down, we desire to give the Head of the Church all the glory. Thankful to our Heavenly Father for those who are still in the Church here, and for His goodness to those who are waiting in the Church above, we praise our God for the blessings of the past, and hopefully assume our duties of the future.

The Manse, Cardinal, June 3rd, 1915.

P.S.—Many events and names of interested helpers may be omitted from this sketch, but none intentionally. For these omissions we ask forgiveness. We have endeavored to do the best we could with the material at hand.
