OSBORNE & FRANCIS,

54 King Street East, Toronto.

Mercantile Summary.

The Toronto Electric Lighting Company have again been awarded the contract for civic lighting in Toronto for three years, the price being $63.34 per light per annum.

Abraham Webber, of Halifax, N.S., who has been doing business for the past year or two as the Halifax Cloak and Skirt Co., has assigned, and is reported as offering 25 cents on liabilities of $10,500. He was originally a pedlar, and later of the firm of Carney & Webber, clothing, etc., St. John, N.B., who failed in 1898.

Articles of agreement between the Canada and Michigan Bridge and Tunnel Company and the Michigan and Canada Bridge and Tunnel Company, providing for their consolidation under the name of the Detroit River Tunnel Company, have been filed with the Secretary of State for Michigan. Work upon the actual construction of the tunnel has been under way on the Windsor side of the river for the past three weeks.

We observe the announcement of Mr. Walter S. Andrews, F.C.A., that he has resigned the position of comptroller for the Canadian General Electric Company to engage in the practice of his profession as a public chartered accountant, under the firm name of W. S. Andrews & Co., after 1st January, 1906, at 23 Jordan St., Toronto. Mr. Andrews has resided a long time in Toronto, and has a good reputation as a competent and trustworthy man.

During the week there have been several fires of more or less importance throughout the Dominion. The Western Clothing Company's premises in Montreal were on Friday seriously damaged by fire, the total loss to them and some adjoining buildings being $15,000. On the same day one of the oldest and most fashionable churches in Halifax, St. Luke's Cathedral, was destroyed completely at a heavy loss. The organ alone was worth $10,000, and was insured for $6,000, the insurance on the building being $25,000. The indications are said to point to an incendiary origin for the fire. In Winnipeg the Stuart Machinery Company's shops were partially burned at a loss of $10,000. In another fire in Montreal the machinery shop of R. H. Buchanan and the printing establishment of W. Heaton & Sons suffered a total damage of $5,000, and Hugh Allan's cold storage plant was injured to the amount of about $4,000.
