An Original Poem by Alice Pyne,

Mc Davitt, Foxboro.

Many pleasant memories cling, The whitely painted houses,

he brick churches—two in number

Where the congregations meet, And the pastors' cosy dwellings, And the long and shady street.

And the bells' inviting ring.

Tis now a Sabbath morning

And I think of years ago, And our beloved members, Who to-day are absent now.

aggie Songwell in the choir

With her rosy face aglow,

As she sang the well-loved anthems -Now heaven's hymns does know.

And we sought to hear him speak.

Ben. Rud and his wife-long absent And Almon-with the dead,

Oh! sad does prove the roll-call,

Mr. Frederick—gay and others

We now remembrance send,

Who meet with us no more, But when in our kirk we gather

Neil and Mrs. Vanallen,

No longer worship here.

We think of them-as of yore.

And Karl and the girlies fair,

lassies, From Foxboro travelled far.

Solemn words I would say in closing,

For soon shall the summons call us

And our chance to toil will end.

Warts will render the prettiest hands unsigntly. Clear the excres-

So united—forward—together;
—To the Hills of God ascend.

July 1914.

May we-who are living still

To work-at the Master's will Gather again in the vine-yard

Mr. Burrows—gone so quickly, In a moment had come the call, But he was prepared for going, We know—though tears will fall or your mother. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home at trifling cost, and without aid from anyone. Men cannot understand women's sufferings; what we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor; and thousands have proved there is hope even for the hopeless in my method of home treatment. If you suffer from pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of displacement of internal organs, bladder irritation with frequent urination, obstinate constipation or piles, pain in the sides regularly eliging or displacement organs, bladder irritation with frequent urination, obstinate constipation or piles, pain in the sides regularly eliging or displacement organs, bladder irritation or piles, pain in the sides regularly envoyances, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, fear of something avil about to happen, creeping feeling up the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion, with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast or a general feeling that life is not worth living. I invite you to send to-day for my complete ten days' treatment thirely free and postpaid, to prove to yourself that these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at your own home, without the expense of hospital treatment, or the dangers of an operation. Women everywhere are escaping the surgeon's knife by knowing of my simple method of home treatment, and when you are cured, my sister, I shall only ask you to pass the good word aloo, so some other sufferer. My home treatment is for all,—young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually caves green-sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women, and restores them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter, Res, maker if costs you nothing to give my method of home treatment a complete ten day's trial, and if you wish to continue, it costs only a few cents a week to do so, and it does not interfere with one's daily work. The plaintiff told details of the alleged assault by being struck on the cheek.

In defence Sayer said he had called to Mathison "Say, I would like to have a word with you" as Mathison was going up to the track leading from the freight shed to the yard. He asked "What made you handle me so roughly the other on his finger. He sent his companion to get some food. The latter returned with some "eats" and coffee in a bottle. This he drank and oblivion settled on him. It was wondered whether he was drugged. He found his money and ring gone and he was wearing his companion's coat. Wheeler had been stripped of everything.
