LUTHERAN CONFIRMATION.—The ceremony of confirmation took place in connection with the German Lutheran congregation on Sunday morning last. The town hall, the temporary place of wership of the congregation, was crowded with people, many of whom were compelled to stand throughout the service. The walls of the hall were tastefully decorated with evergreens. Twelve candidates presented themselves. The impressive ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Sommer.

Pre-Nres.—Christ Church Sunday Schoolchildren pic-nicked in the Church grounds on the afternoon of the Queen's birthday. Ample provision was made by the parents and friends for the entertainment of the little folks, who enjoyed themselves as only children can. The pupils of the lower form of the High School also had a pic-nicking holiday. In the early part of the day they drove out to Mr. Jackson's grove in Elma, where they spent a happy day's outing.
