The Junior Baseball League got away to a good start last night when about 25 players attended the meeting at the Y.M.C.A. It was decided to have a seven team league, composed of the following clubs: Alerts, Boy Knights, Climbers, Orioles, Mapie Leafs, Royals and Stars. An entry fee of five dollars for each club will be charged to go towards the purchase of individual prizes for the League winners. It was also decided that each team sign all players, but not to hold more than twelve players after the 15th of July. Season will open on the 1st of July. Now that the league is fairly started it is up to the boys to see that they do their share towards making it one of the best leagues ever organized in the city.
