BIG MILITARY SPECTACLE

The big sham battle, which will be fought out in detail. A full ambulance corps will be seen operating on the field and removing the wounded to the hospital tent and other special features will be introduced.

At the conclusion of the battle—which is supposed to take place at daybreak—the soldiers will assemble for the "march post" and conduct the "march post" and the big military spectacle will be over.

The full program will be found in another column of this issue.

clearer light the strength of His kingdom by shaking and revolution. Similar reference was made to the recent decision of the Privy Council regarding the Free Church remnants, assuring his audience that it could only shake us free of what was not a necessity.

In personal life, also, the principle holds. Some amongst us have no doubt suffered some terrible loss, which has seemed to blot out for us for the time the very light and existence of God, and yet we have later realized that the Eternal God, His kingdom and life still remain and rise in triumph from the crushed and broken human life.

The preacher closed his most powerful and interesting sermon with the expression of the desire that those things which cannot be shaken might be secured to all present, to St. Andrew's Church and to him who had so long and so faithfully labored in its midst.

DIPLOMAS PRESENTED

Rev. Dr. Battisby, chairman of the C. C. I. Board, and T. R. Harris, secretary, visited the C. C. I. Saturday afternoon and presented the diplomas to the commercial class. These are the embossed certificates given to those who successfully passed the examinations last year and all were pupils of Commercial Master Harry Collins.

LET THEM DO THE WORK FOR YOU

If You Haven't Time to Give Your Stomach Proper Attention Use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

In these days of hurry and rush you may feel that you have not the time to give your stomach proper attention. You haven't time to chew your food properly; you haven't time to take proper out-door exercise. Let Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets do the work for you.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food themselves. They will rest the stomach and bring back its health. They cure and cure naturally all stomach ailments.

Ademard Coderre, of St. Jacques de L'Achigan, Que., says: "I am happy to say I have been completely cured of Dyspepsia by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. My Dyspepsia was brought on by inflammation of the stomach and I suffered with it for two years. I tried three medicines without getting relief before I began to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. Two boxes of them cured me completely."

65 KILLED AND 125 HURT

Head-On Collision Results in a Fearful Disaster.

Terrible United States Railway Wreck Near Newmarket in the State of Tennessee—Conductor Caldwell Said: "It Was My Fault I Misread My Orders"—Every Car on One Train Was Destroyed.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 26.—In a collision at 10.20 o'clock Saturday on the Southern Railway, three miles west of Newmarket, a small town twenty-one miles from this city, fully sixty-five persons lost their lives. Most of them were killed outright, but probably a score have died during the day. About one hundred and twenty-five were injured seriously. Several of these will die.

The collision was of two passenger trains, both heavily laden with passengers. Train No. 12, eastbound, left this city at 9.35 o'clock. It was a heavy vestibule train pulling four sleeping cars. Train No. 15, westbound, was due in this city from Bristol at 11 o'clock, and the engineer and conductor had orders to await the coming of the eastbound train at Newmarket, but overlooked their orders.

Conductor Caldwell of train No. 15 when asked by a passenger as to the cause of the wreck said:

"It was my fault. I misread my orders."

Every car on train No. 15 was demolished. The sleeping cars on train No. 12 escaped without injury and no one in them was hurt.

The trains were due to pass at Hodge Station, but collided about one mile and a half west of that place, the westbound train running past the meeting point. Both engineers were killed.

Six Persons Hurt—One Dead.

Rochester, N.Y., Sept. 26.—Six persons who were injured in a wreck on the New York Central, a short distance east of Lyons, early yesterday morning were brought to Rochester hospitals. Three sleepers on the western express train, bound from New York to Chicago, left the rails and threw the passengers to the floors of the coaches.

Just as the train came to a standstill, a fast freight, eastbound, ran into the derailed cars. Mrs. Newman Erbs, wife of the vice-president of the Pere Marquette Railroad, who was brought here with both limbs cut off, died at the hospital. Mr. Erbs was bruised and injured.

The following are the other injured passengers who were brought here: Sarah Lowen, 424 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Mich., bruised and cut; Richard Heaney, San Francisco, a brewer, bruised and cut; Samuel Stern, Kansas City, bruised and cut about the head and shoulders; Mrs. Stern, bruised and suffering from shock.

Engine Rolled Over and Over.

Winnipeg, Sept. 26.—Spreading rails were accountable for a serious accident to the eastbound transcontinental train, four miles this side of Mooseman, and as a result seven men were more or less seriously injured. The engineer was badly lamed and received internal injuries of a serious nature. Six cars were badly smashed and many passengers had narrow escapes. All the passengers injured were Italians on the way from Fernie mines en route to Italy.

Killed By a Train.

Chatham, Sept. 26.—James Shuler, a colored farm laborer, who hails from Harwich, while working on the G. T. R. tracks near the western city limits early yesterday morning was struck by a westbound train and instantly killed. Shuler was 43 years of age and unmarried.

18 Saved, But 4 Perished.

St. John's, Nfld., Sept. 26.—The Swedish steamer Kron Prinz Gustav, from Rotterdam for Wabana, has arrived here. She reports having had a frightful experience. She will go into dry dock for repairs. The French fishing vessel Celeste is reported to have gone ashore on the west coast during a gale. Eighteen of her crew were saved, but four perished.

Entangled in Canoe.

Dort Francis, Sept. 26.—A sad accident occurred here yesterday, where a young man, Warner Hodgins of Lucan, Ont., was drowned. He and a companion by the name of McKenzie were coming down the river in a canoe, and when passing through the rapids above Fort Francis upset. Hodgins became entangled and was held under. He was a clerk in H. Williams' store.

Boy Shoots Chum.

Winnipeg, Sept. 26.—Gordon Martin, the 14-year-old son of T. W. Martin, while hunting for chickens, near Fort Rouge, yesterday afternoon, with two companions, was accidentally shot in the head and killed. The bullet came from the rifle of Norman D'Arcy, who is nearly prostrated.

Fall From a Silo.

Unionville, Sept. 26.—On Friday afternoon, while engaged in working on a silo on the farm of A. G. Gormley, near this village, John Reid, a well-known farmer, lost his footing and fell to the ground, a distance of 29 feet. In falling, he sustained a dislocated hip and a broken ankle, and was generally severely shaken up.

Killed While Intoxicated.

Binscarth, Man., Sept. 26.—While driving home Friday night, John LeDoux, a half-breed, was killed. It is supposed that he drove over a steep hill, having taken the wrong trail. LeDoux was under the influence of liquor at the time of the fatality.

Lyon World's Champion.

St. Louis, Sept. 26.—George S. Lyons, the golf representative of Canada in the Olympic championship play, defeated Howard Chandler Egman, American champion, Saturday the championship of the 3 up and 2 to play.

KUROPATKIN CAPTURED

Japanese Coll Is Tightening Around Port Arthur—Mikado's Forces Now Practically Command the Water Supply of the Russian Garrison—Car Creates a Second Manchurian Army of 300,000 With 600 Guns—A Titanic Struggle.

Chefoo, Sept. 26.—As a result of the battle before Port Arthur, which began on Sept. 19, the Japanese succeeded in capturing several important positions, and yesterday the Russian tenure of the big forts guarding the north, northeast and northwest sides of the town is seriously threatened. Chinese information places the Japanese losses under 3,000 for the three days' fighting, and this comparatively small casualty list is due to the excessive care used by the Japanese in making their preparations for the advance.

Russian sources, however, claim to have information that the Japanese losses were unusually severe, amounting to fully three times the number mentioned above.

Possibly the most important capture during the three days' fighting was that of Fort Kuropatkin, which, while of minor value with regard to preventing the entrance into the town of the Japanese, had been constructed for the purpose of protecting the source of the garrison's water supply.

The control of the water supply is now in the hands of the Japanese. Military experts here are of the opinion that if the Japanese capture either Rihlung or Kikwa Forts, or the Itz and Anshu Forts, the doom of Port Arthur is sealed, and for this reason the importance of the results obtained by the Japanese in their latest assaults upon the Russian positions is obvious.

Russians Fought Fiercely.

At 5 o'clock of the afternoon of Sept. 20, the Japanese captured a supplementary fort, which from the lower ground threatens the fort on Itz Mountain. This ended the heavy fighting for that day, although the Japanese were compelled to resist several sorties.

During the night the heavy bombardment of the Russian positions continued, the Japanese fire being directed with particular vigor against another supplementary fort, 3,000 yards from the fort on Itz Mountain, and regarded as highly important because of its bearings on the Itz and Anshu Mountains forts. The next day, after having pounded this position unmercifully, until its fire had slackened visibly, the Japanese delivered their assault. They met with a stubborn resistance. They were exposed to the fire of machine guns and rifles and they made frantic efforts to reach the west of the slope. They leaped over trenches and embankments and tore down the entanglements in their path, until at length they entered the fort.

The Russian troops there refused to desert their positions, even in the face of the superior numbers which confronted them, and desperate hand-to-hand fighting occurred outside of the fort. Eventually almost the entire Russian garrison was either killed or wounded.

The foregoing information has been obtained from a Chinese of unimpeachable trustworthiness. A steamer which has arrived here from Port Dalny confirms previous reports that there was heavy fighting at Port Arthur on Sept. 24.

Japs Capture 6 Forts.

Tokio, Sept. 26, 11 a.m.—It is believed that the Japanese have captured six forts in the second line of defence at Port Arthur since September 19. The hope of a speedy reduction of the fortress is running higher.

300,000 More Men—600 Guns.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 26.—The division and re-organization of the Manchurian army was officially announced yesterday in an Imperial rescript appointing Gen. Gripenberg, commander of the third army corps in the Province of Vilna, as commander of the second army now being mobilized for immediate dispatch to the Far East, leaving Gen. Kuropatkin in command of the first army.

Probably 300,000 additional men will be placed in the field. Five corps—the third, fourth, fifth, eighth and sixteenth—are already destined for the front, and the talk is that five more corps will be sent forward. Eventually, at least, all this second army involves the selection of a commander-in-chief. It is the best opinion that Grand Duke Nicholas Michaelovitch, Inspector-General of Cavalry, will attain the high command, occupying in the war with Japan the position held by his father in the war with Turkey.

In the reorganization special plans have been made to overcome the deficiency in guns under which the Russians have been laboring. Over 600 additional field and rapid fire guns are to be sent to the front. The great struggle for the mastery in the Far East now seems destined to assume a titanic proportions.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 26.—Major-General Orlow, who has been held responsible for the retreat of the Russian forces from Liaoyang, has been dismissed from the army.

Uncertain At Mukden.

Mukden, Sept. 26.—The situation here cannot be definitely stated, as each day brings forth conflicting reports. According to a Chinese report received, the Japanese are actively engaged in fortifying Liaoyang.

No Change in Situation.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 26.—General Kuropatkin has sent the following despatch to Emperor Nicholas, dated Sept. 24: "There is no change in the situation to-day. Cold set in a few days ago, the temperature falling to one degree. It has become Told to Move On.

Port Said, Sept. 26.—The Russian auxiliary cruisers St. Petersburg and Smolensk are here awaiting permission to take on board enough coal and provisions to carry them to Bizerta, Tunis. They asked for sufficient supplies to enable them to reach Libau, but their request was refused, and they must proceed within 24 hours. Yesterday afternoon the captains of the Russian vessels exchanged visits with the officers of the British cruiser Furios.

SACHEL OF THE SATELLITE

And the year is drawing to a close—and the City Council has done nothing towards that wretched sieve they call a market building.

Ho, all ye "foreigners" and Dundonaldites, be on hand to greet the Great Fisher with raised hats and reverently bowed heads to-morrow.

Now that Ald. Edmondson has the lighting problem satisfactorily removed from his mind, he will doubtless get after that alleged building on the market square.

Friday first, Saturday second, Sunday third—yes, I'm not mistaken. This is the fourth day of the ten in which George Stephens promised that the new armories should be started.

By George, I'm glad that battle to be presented by the Regiment at the Fair Grounds on Wednesday night is a sham one. Doc Cornell's too good a friend of mine to be exposed to sharp shooters in actual warfare.

Says the Toronto Globe of the Soo rascality: "No decent Liberal will defend it, or make apology for it, or minimize its crime." The Globe should have added, "or profit by it." I always thought the receiver of stolen goods was about as bad as the thief.

Ah, ha! I thought as much. Now it turns out that his royal highness, the unimpeachable Field Marshall Sidney Fisher foisted himself on the directors of the Peninsula Fair for their opening—sort of "buttered in," as it were. Well, from past events, we all came to the conclusion that this "buttering in" was a habit he had.
