

STORE CLOSED MONDAY

To celebrate the commencement of a new year. We have studied your interests in buying, in store service, and in prompt and careful delivery.

By prompt cash payments we have obtained the best goods at lowest prices, and this advantage we give to all our customers. During the coming year we hope to give you even better service than we have done in the past.

We thank you most heartily for your kind patronage, and hope to merit your confidence for the future.

Wishing you a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

H. Malcolmson

Chatham, Dec. 30, 1905.

DEAR FRIENDS,—
In this, our closing message of 1905, we desire to express our most sincere thanks to every person who has in any way helped to make this the best business year in our career.

Sadly handicapped though we were by our disastrous fire, which, by the way, occurred just 9 months ago to-night, still we are very happy to be able to say that, at the present time, we are better able to cater to your wants than ever before.

In closing, allow us to extend to you our most hearty wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Very truly yours,

J. C. Wanless

THE UP-TO-DATE
HARDWARE MAN.

DR. OVENS, M.D.
L. R. C. P., Etc., London, England
SURGEON, OCULIST, SPECIALIST
Diseases: Eye, Ear and Nose treated and Glasses fitted properly. Will be at Endley's Drug Store, Chatham. Next Date of visit, Monday, January 22

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

...AND...

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

TO ONE
AND ALL.

T. W. POILE

Jeweller. Garner Block.

Harry M. Church

With Brisco Bros. has opened shop on North Street, north side bridge, in the Ronalds Block. Will be glad to do any repairs or cleaning on your Bicycle, Skates, Scissors, Knives. Work called for and guaranteed or no pay. P. O. box 424

25 Per Cent. Discount

Following our usual custom we are this week giving a DISCOUNT OF 25 PER CENT. on all FANCY GOODS.

A. I. McCALL & CO., LTD.
DRUGGISTS.

DR. A. A. HICKS
DENTIST

Office: 26 King St. East, Over
Turner's Drug Store. Phone 357

TO-NIGHT

Christ Church choir practice at 8.
Choir Practice, First Presbyterian Church, at 8.

SUNDAY.

Special music will be rendered in all the city churches on Sunday.

NEW YEAR'S DAY.

Moving Pictures, Grand Opera House, at 3 and 8.15 p. m.

Western City Lodge, I. O. O. F., at 8.

Sons of England, in their hall at 8 o'clock.

Epworth League, Park St. Church Lecture Hall, at 8.

Municipal election returns, at this office, as soon as possible after close of polls.

Wellington Lodge, No. 46, A. F. & A. M., G. R. C., Masonic Temple, Seale's new block, King St., at 7.30, Sharp.

THE LOCAL BUDGET

"The Lust of Hate," our new serial, begins to-day. Read it!

Sam Holmes is a candidate for Alderman for next year.

Special Matinee on Monday at The Grand

Mr. Geo. Clark, of Detroit, is calling on friends in Chatham to-day.

Sam Holmes is a candidate for Alderman for next year.

Seats go on sale Monday morning for the "Serio Comic Girl."

Wm. Mowbray and Dr. Fred Mowbray are spending the holidays at their home in Botany.

Lost to-day, Saturday, a ten dollar bill. Finder will be rewarded by leaving at this office.

The County House of Refuge Committee are in session at Harrison Hall to-day.

Wanted, good boy to work at trimming in carriage shop. Apply Wm. Gray & Sons.

Misses Lulu and Flossie Edmondson are spending New Years with their cousins in St. Mary's.

Parties having accommodation for boarders—ladies or gentlemen—should leave their address at the Business College.

The W. C. T. U. will receive their friends at the home of Mrs. A. J. Wilson, William Street, on New Year's day from 3 to 7 p. m.

Mr. P. J. Goodwin, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Peter Miller, Harvey Street, returned to his home in Chicago to-day.

New Programme of Pictures and Illustrated Songs for The Grand Monday, Afternoon and Evening

A rush for seats Monday morning is expected for the "Serio Comic Girl." This is predicted to be the banner comic opera of the season. No seats higher than one dollar.

Nice Berried Holly Wreaths, 10c., with American Beauty Ribbon 25c., at the Victoria Ave. Green Houses. Order early, as supply is limited.

A fourth sermon to men will be preached to-morrow night by Rev. P. E. Malott, on "How to Get a Fresh Start." The music for this service will be especially good.

One dollar will secure the best seat in the Opera House for the "Serio Comic Girl." Prices 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

At County Court yesterday afternoon, before Justice of the Peace John McCorvie, two lads were committed for trial for the theft of a wolf robe. They appear before Judge Bell for trial this afternoon.

When marking your ballot on Monday kindly remember W. H. Westman's name will appear second last on the ballot. Mark one for him.

Mr. H. A. Wilcox, Bloomfield, has returned home from Blytheswood, where he has been attending the funeral of his brother, James Wilcox. He was a son of the late Hesekiah Wilcox, River Road, Raleigh, and was well known in this district.

The sugar beet season has closed at Wallaceburg. The Pere Marquette Railway Company handled this season 1,700 cars of sugar beets, against 950 for the same period last year. The cars were shunted and unloaded in 56 days this year, against 78 days last year.

CHATHAM'S ONLY MILLINERY STORE

This is the LAST WEEK in 1905. We are going to make it a record week in the Millinery trade at this time of the season.

The greatest bargains of all the year in all lines in Millinery.

O. A. OOKSLEY, King St.

Wishing All

A Prosperous

And

Happy New Year

E. A. Mounteer,
KENT BAKERY.

"The Lust of Hate"—Page Six.

"The Lust of Hate," our new serial, begins to-day. Read it!

Owing to a break in the wheel, it will be impossible to ring the bell on the market house for a few days.

Miss Ida Tobey, of Chatham, and Glen Cruickshank, of Blenheim, are visiting Mrs. Cecil Gummage, Ridgetown Dominion.

W. J. Rankin, Dover, found a small purse containing the sum of money. The finder can have it by paying for this notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Logan and family, of Chatham, spent Monday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Logan—Wallaceburg News.

Read the opening chapters of our new serial, "The Lust of Hate," by Guy Boothby, which will be found on Page Six of this issue.

The tug "Aldridge," Captain Robinson, cleared for Detroit to-day and will go to Pelee Island for a cargo of tobacco and hops.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Mrs. James Poole, Murray Street, had a pink tea in honor of her birthday. The covers were laid for thirteen. Miss Ina Wanless and Miss Edith Farby assisted in the tea room.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

With to-day's issue begins our splendid new serial story, "The Lust of Hate." Get in on the "ground floor" and read the opening chapters on Page Six.

Our readers will notice in another column the advertisement of Waterhouse's bread. This is not by any means a new article to many Chatham people. Mr. Waterhouse has in a quiet, steady way, worked up the largest bread trade in the city. This has come about as a result of the merits of what he has been giving his customers for the past 20 years. He has lately secured the services of Mr. A. A. Simpson as foreman of his bakery shop. This gentleman has no superiors in his profession. His best testimonials—which Mr. Waterhouse can offer as to his efficiency—is the many flattering remarks lately received from his customers as to the great improvement in the quality of the bread since Mr. Simpson took charge. We advise our readers to give Waterhouse's bread a trial, and a trial is likely to make them regular customers.

We Wish You
a Very Happy and Prosperous
New Year

THE

King Edward

Grocery

PHONE 51.

Society

Continued from Page 2.

Miss Edith Holmes, Victoria Avenue, gave a small dance last evening.

Geo. Ryan, who has been visiting relatives in the city, returns to St. Paul to-day.

Mrs. Houston, Victoria Avenue, entertained on Friday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Rose.

Mrs. Houston and Mrs. J. W. Young gave a handkerchief shower for Miss Harper on Thursday.

Mrs. S. F. Gardner, William Street, entertained a number of friends last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Whittely, of Goderich. A very enjoyable time was spent.

THE MARKET

There was a very fair New Year's market this morning although there was not as much stuff offered as there was last Saturday.

The following is the price list:

DAIRY PRODUCE.
Butter, per lb., 22c. to 25c.
Cheese, 1-lb., per lb.
Cream, 30c. quart.
Chickens, each, 35c. to 40c.
Ducks, each, 35c. to 40c.
Eggs, per dozen, 25c.
Geese, each, 90c. to $1.10.
Honey, strained, per lb., 10c.
Honey, rack, 15c.
Lard, per lb., 12c.
Turkeys, each, $1.00 to $3.00.

VEGETABLES.
Beets, per peck, 15c.
Beans, per quart, 6c.
Cabbage, each, 5c. to 10c.
Carrots, per peck, 10c.
Celery, per bunch, 10c. to 15c.
Cucumbers, in brine, 8c. doz.; 25c. hundred.

Margform, per bunch, 5c.
Onions, peck, 20c. bag, $1.
Parsnips, per peck, 15c.
Potatoes, per bag, 90c. to $1.00.
Pumpkins, each, 5c. to 10c.
Pop corn, dozen, 10c.
Parsley, per bunch, 5c.
Squash, yellow, 20c. to 25c.
Squash, Hubbard, 10c. to 25c.
Squash, Turbina, 5c. to 10c.
Sage, per bunch, 5c.
Savory, per bunch, 5c.
Salsify, per bunch, 5c.
Turnips, per peck, 10c.
Thyme, per bunch, 5c.
Tobacco, per bunch, 5c.

FRUIT.
Apples, pk., 25c. to 35c.; bag, $1.25.
STOCK.
Butchers, per lb., 5c. to 6c.
Calves, per lb., dressed, 5c. to 6c.
Hogs, $6.25 to $6.50.

FISH.
Mullet, per lb., 8c.
Pickrel, per lb., 11c.
Salmon Trout, per lb., 12 1-2c.

NUTS.
Chestnuts, per quart, 12 1-2c.
Hickory nuts, quart, 8c.
Walnuts, per peck, 20c.

MEATS.
Dressed beef, quarter, 5c. to 6c.
Fresh pork, quarter, 8c. to 10c.
Hogs, dressed, 7 1-2c.
Head cheese, each, 13c.
Hogs, $6.35 to $6.40.
Lamb, per lb., 9c.
Mutton, per lb., 8c.

GAME.
Rabbits, each, 10c. to 15c.
WOOD.
Hard wood, 18-inch, cord, $2.50.
Soft wood, 18-inch, cord, $2.25.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McDonald and family, of Chatham, are spending the holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kerner, townline—Ridgetown Dominion.

Minard's Liment Relieves Neuralgia.

Minard's Liment used by Physicians.

Adieu
1905

After Our Great
Holiday Rush....

Welcome
1906

Gordon will continue this week offering surprising sacrifices in Ladies' Coats and Fine Fashioned Furs.

We can show you some of the very best Ladies' Cloth Coats you ever set eyes on, of the finest workmanship, the best materials, and the most advanced styles of this season. Priced at one-half to a third or even a fourth below regular values. Hundreds have proved this and so may you, only make no delay.

Mantle Cloths

Covert Cloths, 58 inch wide, light or dark fawn, regular $2.00 goods at $1.45.
2 pieces English Coverts, same width, extra heavy, fawn and brown, regular $2.75 goods, selling to clear at $1.85.
1 piece heavy Mantling, checked tweed effect, regular $2.50, on sale for $2.00.

We are making such special reductions on Furs of all kinds that purchasers preserve their health and save their money.

Fine Alaska Sable Scarfs—$40.