GOOD NEWS FOR THE OLD FOLKS

Mr. Angus McMillan Tells Them Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Will Cure Their Stomach Troubles.

Of peculiar interest to the aged is the story of Mr. Angus McMillan, of Logan P. O., Glengarry Co., Ont. Mr. McMillan is now over 82 years of age and looks hearty enough to reach the 100 mark. He attributes a large part of his splendid health to Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. He says:

"I suffered from Dyspepsia for more than 20 years but never met with anything to cure me till I commenced taking Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. After using them for two days all the pain and restlessness left me. 'I am in one sense a new man and have great reason to be thankful for all the good Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have done me.'"

Stomach troubles are one of the burdens the old folks have to bear. It is good news of them that there is a speedy and effective cure for them in Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Nelson's "Memorandum" Found. London, Feb. 21.—The Daily Telegraph yesterday makes the interesting announcement of the discovery of the original draft in Lord Nelson's handwriting of his historic "General Memorandum" to his captains at Trafalgar. The document was in the possession of a private family living near Merton Abbey, the home of Lady Hamilton.

A MILLION DOLLARS SQUANDERED.

It is estimated this sum was wasted last year by people trying to find a cure for catarrh. Foolish for sufferers to experiment when it's so well known that "Catarhoxone" is the only remedy that cures permanently. Other catarhoxone cures and leave, but Catarhoxone cures and prevents the disease from ever returning. "I had Catarh in its worst form," writes G. F. Fadden, of Iroquois, Que. "I was so bad that even my medicine didn't even relieve; but Catarhoxone cured perfectly." No chance of disappointment with Catarhoxone—it's certain as death to cure your Catarh—just try it.

Fire at London. London, Feb. 21.—Fire, which broke out at 12:35 yesterday morning, did damage to the extent of $5,000 to $7,000 to the four-storey building situated on Richmond street and occupied by Stevely & Son, dealers in stoves and tinware.

"No one knows what I suffered from stomach trouble and dyspepsia," writes Mr. A. B. Agnew, of Bridgeport. "For the last five years I have been unable to digest and assimilate food. I had no color, my strength ran down and I felt miserable and nervous all the time. I always had a heavy feeling after meals and was much troubled with a dizziness and specks before my eyes. Dr. Hamilton's Pills were just what I needed. They have cured every symptom of my old trouble. My health is now all that can be desired." ## Col. Roper Resigns.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—Lieut. Col. Roper, whose command of the Governor-General's Foot Guards proved unpopular with the rank and file, Monday night handed over the stores of the corps to Lieut. Col. Hodgins, D. C. O. He thus relinquishes the command, and will be succeeded by Major H. A. Bate. The retirement will date a month hence, when he will have served sufficient to retain rank.

ARE GOOD LOOKS VALUABLE?

If nature had her way every complexion would be clear and delightful. But many allow their blood to become weak—hence pimples, sallowness, dark circles under the eyes. To have a beautiful complexion use Ferrero's regularly. It brings a rich, rosy glow to the cheeks, nourishes the blood and thereby destroys the more and pimples. "For beauty, health and good spirits use Ferrero's. Your appearance will improve a hundred fold. Fifty cents buys a box of fifty chocolate-coated Ferrero's tablets. Don't put off—get Ferrero's to-day."

ERRONEOUS BELIEFS.

SOME ODD NOTIONS THAT ARE FIXED IN MANY MINDS.

Popular ignorance as to Law in Everyday Occurrences—Cashiers' Mistakes in Banks—Finding of Dead Bodies—Sunday Contracts.

It is an American predilection to believe the out and freakish stories that are based solely on hearsay testimony and to reject often the commonplace matter of fact. A list of the cheerful lies that are commonly believed would fill a volume. Only a few of them are given below.

How often have you been inflicted with the story of the man who was overpaid when cashing a check at the bank and the cashier telling him that no mistakes would be corrected after the customer left the window? According to the story, the cashier laid down the mandate before the cashier knew the mistake was in his favor. It makes an excellent yarn, but diligent search discloses that it never had any foundation in fact. Banks have no such rule. If a customer is underpaid or overpaid the mistake will appear when the balance is struck at the end of the day's business, and the error will be cheerfully rectified. But the majority of the public believe the fiction story of "how the fellow got the best of the bank" simply because it is a good story and they like to believe it.

Probably the most common error on the part of the public is the belief that when a dead body is found no one has a right to touch or move it. There never was any such law, is not now and probably never will be. The citizen who is of an inquiring turn of mind has a perfect right to examine the dead bodies he runs across in the course of his travels, to move the remains and even search the pockets of the dead, provided, of course, that his motives are honest. That is all that is necessary.

There is also a prevalent belief that a note signed or contract entered into on Sunday is void and that either party can plead the fact of the sacred day to get out of a bad bargain. This is not true. If a man enters into a contract or signs a note on Sunday he is legally bound and can have no defense that he would not have if the transaction had occurred in the middle of the week.

"I had my back against my own house when I struck this man," says the defendant in police court. He believes that his proximity to his castle gives him more rights than he would have if he were in the street. This belief has been the cause of much cancerous litigation, and it has ever resulted in the ruling that a man has a right to defend himself in a reasonable manner if he is attacked, whatever may be his geographical position, and the incidental contiguity of his home "cubic no less" in the case.

The public has great confidence in the magic number three, and without any reasonable basis for the belief. It is commonly believed that if a drowning person sinks for the third time he is gone for good and all. The facts contradict this. Many persons die in the first sinking, and if one has the strength and vitality to rise to the surface of the water twice it furnishes an excellent presumption that he will be able to do so again. In an eddy or rapidly moving waters people have sunk from sight a half dozen times and lived to tell the experience to their grandchildren.

Then there is the third congestive chill, commonly believed to be fatal. Most people who die from this cause succumb to the first or second attack. If a man succumbs in weathering the third chill the odds are in favor of his coming out victor in the third. Almost every community possesses a citizen who boasts the fact that he has a silver plate in his skull. Surgeons say that very few attempts were ever made at such an operation, and all of them were failures. There is no silver plate in his skull, although many men honestly believe that they are carrying this species of paraphernalia in their craniums. The bone of the skull cannot live and be healthy in the presence of a foreign body. It is said by surgeons to be a physical impossibility, but the common way in no way to overcome the common and erroneous belief.

The medical fraternity has another false belief to combat in cases of "shingles." This disease consists of a skin eruption, always following affected nerves and commonly appearing on the body. It is a very common belief that if the "shingles" completely surround the body and strike a meeting point the patient will die instantly. The belief is untrue.

Considerate.

After the ten things had been cleared away the young wife came over and sat on hubby's knee, put her plump arms about his neck and kissed him half a dozen times.

"Well, what is it now?" he queried. "A new dress, dear," she answered. "But don't you know that times are awfully hard just at present?" he queried.

Of course I do," she replied.

"That's why I want to give the poor dressmaker something to do."

No Repentance.

"She married in haste and repented at leisure, didn't she?"

"She hasn't repented any that I know of."

"But she is divorced?"

"Yes, but she gets $200 a month alimony."

A "DRAW OUT" PLAN.

What Irish Unionists Will Do to Get Knowledge of Irish Policy.

London, Feb. 21.—The House of Commons devoted the entire day and night sessions yesterday to a desultory debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne. Among the motions of which notice was given, the following will be moved from the Government benches:

"The House of Commons, recognizing the general decision of the people of the United Kingdom, in demonstrating unqualified fidelity to the principles of free trade, deem it right to record its determination to resistance to the proposals, whether for the taxation of foreign corn or by the erection of a general tariff on foreign goods which will create a system of protection."

This resolution will be moved after the adoption of the address. It is understood that the Duke of Devonshire will move a similar resolution in the House of Lords.

Irish Unionists will move an amendment to the address condemning the proposed changes in the Government of Ireland as tending in the direction of home rule. This is intended to draw from the Government a declaration of its policy with regard to Ireland.

BLAIR GOES TO C. P. R.

Former Chairman of Railway Commission Enters Service of Railway.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—Hon. A. G. Blair has been retained by the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. at a salary of $10,000 a year. He will give his entire time to the service of the company, acting as their representative before the Railway Commission and the railway committee of the House of Commons. He will be chiefly employed in the preparation of briefs and arguments, but he will also be consulted on matters of general policy affecting the company.

AFRAID OF STINGING MEDICINES.

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rheumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. Rev. Amos Parker of Magnolia, North Carolina, suffered for eight years with a lame hip, due to severe rheumatic pains. He has been permanently cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by all druggists.

Labor Man's Death.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—Peter J. McGuire, one of the founders of the American Federation of Labor, is dead, aged 53.

STARTLING BUT TRUE.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theatre in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number, or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have ward off the disease by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a very severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. Wilcox, Logan, New York. Sold by all druggists.

MASKINONGE ARE GREEDY.

Fresh Water Sharks of Canada Are Heavy Eaters—Old Stagers Weigh From 29 to 62 Pounds.

A fine maskinonge was killed in the Ottawa River not far from here lately, says a writer from Hull, Quebec. Its captor was trolling for pickerel with a bare spoon and was greatly surprised when he received a tug which nearly wrenched his arm out, followed by the peculiar shake and rush which told that a good fish had been taken. There was a good half hour of vigorous playing down before the big fellow could be brought near enough to the boat to be killed. It weighed 22 pounds and was exactly 4 feet in length over all.

Another fish, which measured half a foot more in length, was taken a few miles higher up the river on Tuesday last. It weighed 35 pounds. This one was taken in the orthodox manner, that is, upon a large spoon bait, with a triangular bit of pork on the hook.

In both of these cases no attempt was made to get the mate, which probably was close by. It is seldom that the fish are to be found cruising alone.

They tell a tale hereabouts being caught did pair of these greivies being caught upon one set of hooks in Lake Deschamps. The spoon was armed with a triple set of large hooks hung by a swivel from the line in such a manner that they trailed in the water about half way down the spoon. At the tail end the usual gang of hooks was attached with the bit of pork.

A 37-pounder of the hooks well set in and got two fish. The fisherman was hauling him in, when the other, probably the female fish, saw much about itself, or at any rate so darted at it itself, or at any rate so darted at it, and was caught in the eye socket, and securely held.

The man was alone on the lake, and was at his wife's end. As he told the tale, he dragged the boat up by hauling his line to where the two creatures thrashed about on the surface, and, cooking his single barreled gun, held the line in his left hand while he fired in the direction of his captives. His chance shot took effect, and both fish were so stunned that they could be towed into shallow water. The combined weight of the two fish was 78 pounds.

But the largest fish known to have been taken in this district was caught in a much simpler manner. Old Peter Bruke secured it with a bathhook, near the mouth of the Gatineau. It was basking and apparently fast asleep on the surface of the river when the old man first saw it, and he was about to run up to it and lift it in for a float, long when he detected signs of life, and instead hurled his boat hook straight at it.

A good deal of splashing ensued, but somehow or another the old river wailer contrived to loop a cord around his tail and to tow the great thing ashore. It was a gaunt, ugly specimen, and weighed on the pound scale 62 pounds. Within the gullet of the monster was half of a partly decayed 20-pound sturgeon. With the assistance of his wife the writer captured and skinned the monster, which had another pike pretty nearly as big as himself half in and half out of his jaws.

They make a vigorous struggle for life. These powerful torpedo-shaped giants, but as they are generally caught with hand lines and by trolling, they do not break water much, but after a few fierce rushes are dragged in, swaying from side to side.

Sportsmen rejoice over the death of every one of these creatures; with the great reason was well shown in the case of one of those taken last week. This one had in its huge maw two young ducks, a large whitehead, and a two-pound trout. If this was simply an ordinary meal the annual upkeep of a family maskinonge must be a serious charge upon the water it inhabits.

Children For Canada.

A meeting organized by the Filham Board of Guardians was held at the offices of the Metropolitan Asylums Board, Thames embankment, to give members of their own and other boards of guardians an opportunity of meeting Mr. Boyne Smart, the Dominion of Canada Government Inspector of British children sent to Canada. S. P. J. Probert, M. A. (chairman of the Filham Board of Guardians), took the chair.

Mr. Smart said his visit to Great Britain was not primarily to promote the large emigration to Canada, but to whom they were indentured as members of the family, and though the farmers were democratic they held that "Jock" was not good as his master.

Many poor children drawn from the slums of the country had become prosperous citizens of Canada, some being clerks, doctors, lawyers, and teachers. There were 13 centres in Canada where children from Great Britain were received and distributed—Lloyd's Weekly Newspaper, London.

THREE TRYING TIMES IN A WOMAN'S LIFE

There are three periods of a woman's life when she is in need of the heart strengthening, nerve toning, blood enriching action of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

The first of these is when the young girl is entering the portals of womanhood. At this time she is very often pale, weak and nervous, and unless her health is built up and her system strengthened she may fall a prey to consumption or be a weak woman for life.

The second period is motherhood. The drain on the system is great and the exhausted nerve force and depleted blood require replenishing. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills supply the elements needed to do this.

The third period is "change of life" and this is the period when she is most liable to heart and nerve troubles.

A tremendous change is taking place in the system, and it is at this time many chronic diseases assert themselves. Fortify the heart and nerve system by the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and thus tide over this dangerous period. Mrs. James King, Cornwall, Ont., writes: "I have been taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for some weeks, and I can honestly say they are the best remedy I have ever used for building up the system. You are at liberty to use this statement for the benefit of other sufferers. Price 50 cents per box, three boxes for $1.25, all dealers, or The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

Some time ago I had a bad attack of Quinzy, which laid me up two weeks and cost a lot of money.

Finding the lump again forming in my throat, I bathed freely with MINARD'S LINIMENT and saturated a cloth with the liniment left it on all night.

Next morning the swelling was gone and I attributed the warding off of an attack of Quinzy to the free use of MINARD'S LINIMENT.

RAILWAYS CONSIDERING IDEA OF MAKING NEW ARRANGEMENTS RE SLEEPER BERTHS.

(Gazette, Wednesday, Jan. 24th, 1906.)

Railways are seriously considering the advisability of entering into an agreement by which the travelling public will either have to pay for their berth in sleepers or 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the day they purpose taking a sleeper, or forfeit reservations. It is contended that many people make reservations over the wire or at ticket offices, but certainly not in Canada. The present arrangements such berths are held until the trains start out, but these people do not inform the companies of their change of plan, but keep the berths reserved until the train leaves. Then the berths are empty and the companies are minus the money they should bring.

It is further claimed that sleepers are run at gross cost and that even though berths are sold to persons who happen to be on a train looking for a berth after it has started, yet the inconvenience to the roads and to the travelling public is so great that a reform ought to be introduced. If people notified agents of railroads when they decide not to use berths reserved for them, then they could be sold to others who are anxious to get them, but now persons allow berths to be held up to the last moment just as though they were paid for. This is said to cause trouble and loss which must soon be remedied. It is considered that most persons know by 5 o'clock in the evening whether or not they are going to use the berths, and if they are not the same night, and if they are not absolutely engaged by that hour companies should have the alternative of selling them to berths reserved for them. Vacant berths would use them. Vacant berths would use them. Vacant berths would use them.
